

Meet ...
everyone in

ANGRY BIRDS™

STOP THE PIGS!

This is Bird Island. The birds here can't fly but they are happy.

This is Red. He does not live in town with the birds. He has no friends. He is always angry.

This is Judge Peckinpah. He does not like Red.

This is Mighty Eagle.

The birds like him. He is their hero because he is strong and he can fly.

 Bomb, Terence, and Chuck are perched on a thick, textured tree branch. Bomb is a black bird with a red headband, Terence is a large red bird, and Chuck is a small yellow bird. The background shows a lush tropical setting with green foliage and a blue sky.

Bomb, Terence and Chuck go to a class for angry birds.

 Matilda is a white chicken with a large, colorful, fan-like tail. She has large, expressive eyes and a friendly expression. She is standing on a grassy area with trees in the background.

This is Matilda. She is the teacher in the class for angry birds.

 Leonard is a green pig with a large, wide smile, showing his teeth. He has small ears and a black collar around his neck. He is standing with his arms raised in a happy gesture.

This is Leonard. He is a pig. Leonard and the pigs live on Piggy Island.

Before you read ...
Are the birds and the pigs friends? What do you think?

New Words

What do these new words mean? Ask your teacher or use your dictionary.

eggs

There are three eggs.

attack

The dog is attacking the girl.

explode

This bomb is exploding.

cake

fight

The boys are fighting.

hero

This man is a hero!

pig

This pig is pink.

island

They live on an island.

ship

This is a ship.

'That's a good idea!'

mountain

Look at those big mountains!

Verbs

Present	Past
fall	fell
fight	fought
take	took

ANGRY BIRDS™

STOP THE PIGS!

CHAPTER ONE

The class for angry birds

It was a bad morning for Red. He was angry and he put a cake in a bird's face.

'You're a bad bird, Red,' said Judge Peckinpah. 'Go to the class for angry birds for ten days.'

It was the first day of class.

'Hello,' Matilda said to Red. 'Meet your new friends.'

'I don't want to be here,' answered Red. 'I don't want friends.' He was very angry.

Chuck talked very quickly. Bomb exploded when he was angry. Terence did not speak but he was very, very big.

'Hey, Red,' said Chuck. 'Do you want to do something with us after class?'

'No, I don't,' said Red.

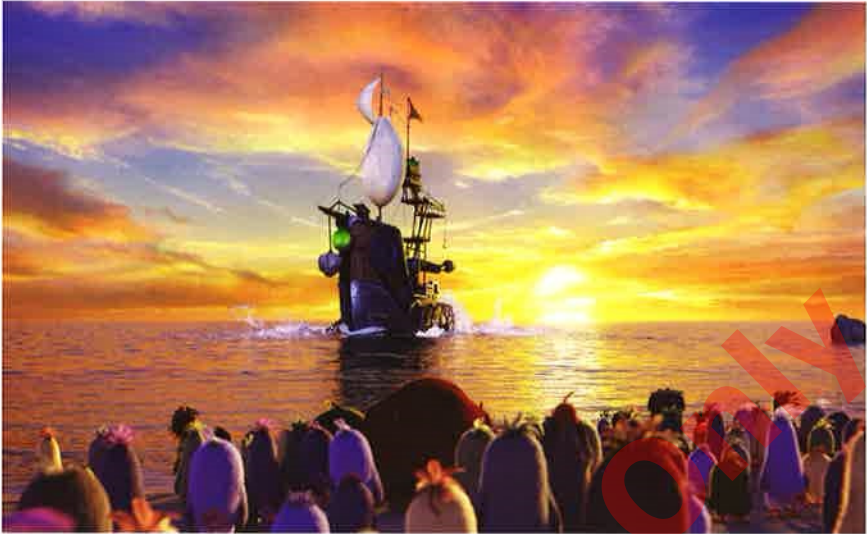

The next day, the birds were in class again.
Suddenly Red stopped.

'Listen,' he said. 'What's that?'

'Let's go and see,' said Chuck, and they all went out.

'Look, it's a big ship!' said Red. 'Oh, no! It's next to my house!'

Crash! The ship went into Red's house.

'Stop!' shouted Red. 'That's my house!'

He was very, very angry.

CHAPTER TWO

The green pigs

'Hello, my name's Leonard,' said a big green pig from the ship. 'We're from Piggy Island. We're your friends.'

The birds were happy.

'Hello,' they said. 'Come and see our island.'

But Red was not happy. He did not like the pigs.

'What about my house?' he asked.

