CHAPTER 1

Votes

Camila sat at her desk and doodled in her notebook.

“Camila,” Shaw said, “who did you pick for class president?”

Camila shrugged. “Isn’t that supposed to be secret?” she asked.

Shaw looked around, then whispered.

“I voted for you,” he said.

“Me?” Camila asked.

Mordecai leaned toward Camila. “I voted for you too,” he said.

Shaw nodded. “So did Pierre and Ryan,” he said.

“Why would you vote for me?”
Camila asked.

Before Shaw could answer,
Mr. Grizley stood up from his desk.
“I’ve tallied the votes,” he said.

“Who won?” Annie called out.

Mr. Grizley smiled.

“Drumroll, please,” he said.

The class drummed on their desks. They drummed faster and faster until Mr. Grizley raised his hand for quiet. The room went silent.

“Your new class president is . . . Camila!”

The class cheered. Everyone except Camila.

Camila sat at her desk and looked around at her classmates.
“Why me?” she wondered.

CHAPTER 2

Plans

At recess, Camila played catch with Annie and Madison.

“What are you going to do as class president?” Annie asked.

“I don’t really have a plan,” Camila said.

“Well, you could make me ball monitor,” Madison said. She held up their ball. “Dmitry always gives the good balls to the boys.”

“We get the old, flat balls,” Annie agreed.
