Julian, Vanessa, and Nick are playing together. They are taking turns telling stories. When one of them tells a story, the other two imagine what is happening.

“It’s my turn,” says Nick. “I’m going to tell a story.”

“Great! We are ready to listen,” say Julian and Vanessa.

“It is nighttime. There is a little boy in the forest. Suddenly, he sees a green light. The light is very bright!” says Nick.

Julian’s eyes are wide open! Vanessa’s mouth is wide open!

“What is that green light?” asks Julian.

“What is that bright light?” asks Vanessa.
They are both puzzled.

“Keep listening. Are you curious?”
asks Nick.

“Yes!” says Julian.

“Me too!” says Vanessa.

“I am curious too!”

“Good!” says Nick. “I will keep telling the story. The little boy sees the green light ahead of him.”

“A few minutes later, the light is on his left. A few minutes after that, the light is on his right,” says Nick.

Julian and Vanessa are puzzled!
What is that green light?

“What is that green light?”
shouts Julian.

“Where does it come from?”
asks Vanessa.
