CHAPTER 1

Running Late

Bobby raced out of the copy shop and crashed into a teenage girl.

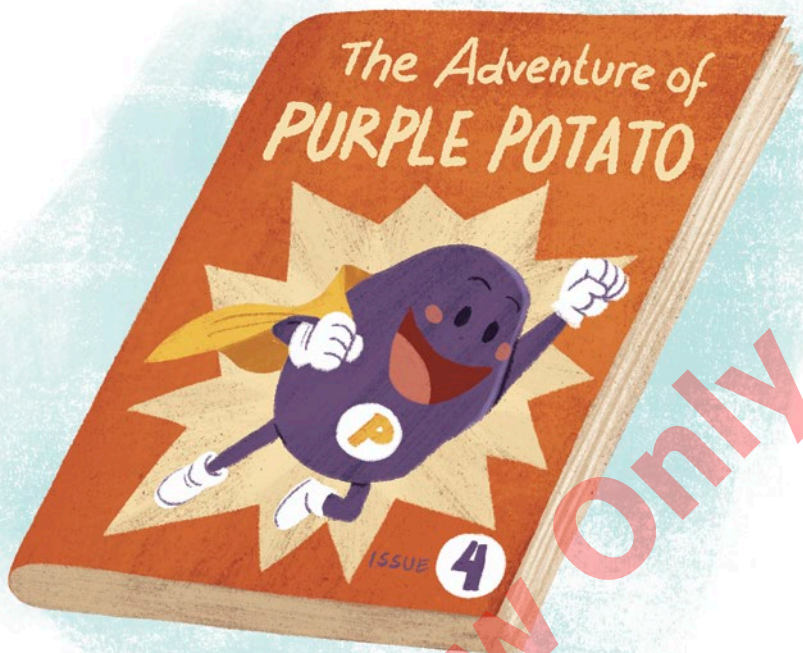

“Sorry about that,” he said.

“Are you okay?” the girl asked. She was dressed in purple from head to toe.

Bobby nodded. “I’m all right,” he said.

He noticed the girl’s outfit and smiled. “You must like purple,” Bobby said. “Check this out. I made it.”

He handed her a copy of a small comic book.

"The Adventure of Purple Potato," she read. "Cool. We match."

Bobby grinned. "I'm Bobby," he said.

“My name is Ashley,” the girl said. “My high school is trying to raise awareness about helping people who are homeless.”

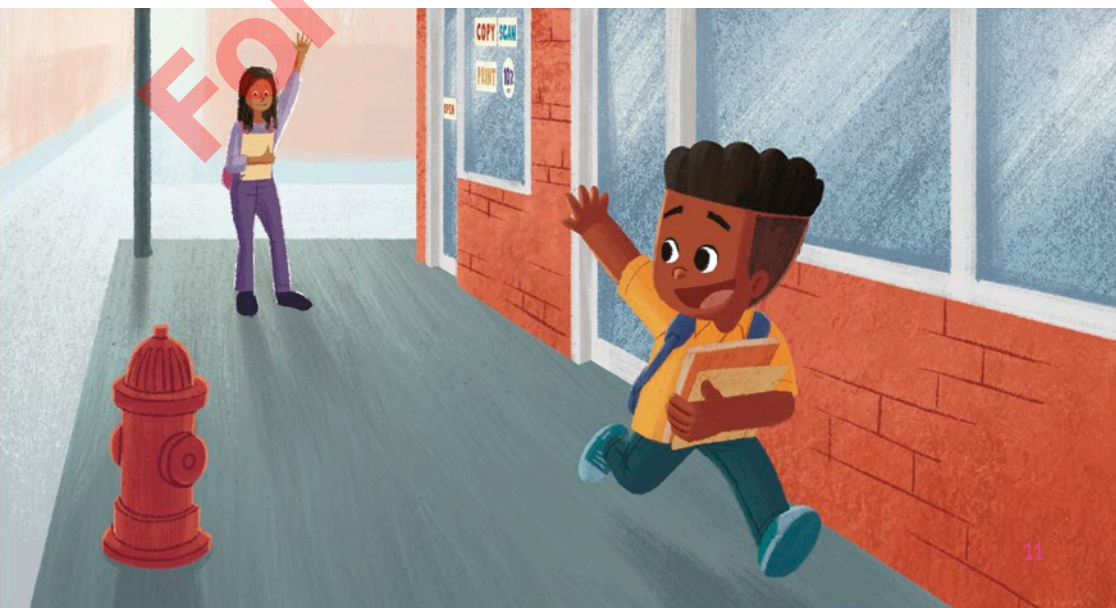

She handed Bobby a flyer. He read it quickly.

“Wow,” Bobby said. “I didn’t know any of this.”

“We need volunteers to spread the word,” Ashley said. “Will you help?”

“Sure,” Bobby said. “I’ll even ask my class. I’m sure they’ll want to help.”

Ashley thanked Bobby for the comic book. He thanked Ashley for the flyer. Then, he hurried off to school.

CHAPTER 2

Attention, Please?

Bobby made it to class before the bell rang. He passed his comic books around.

“Awesome!” Shaw said.
“I can’t wait to read it.”

Bobby remembered the flyer just as the bell rang.

“I have one more thing,”
he said.

“It will have to wait,” said
Mr. Grizley. “We’ve got a busy day today.”
