

Adding

$$4 + 2 =$$

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Four children and two children make six children.

$$6 + 1 = \square$$

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Six lemons and one lemon make seven lemons.

$$3 + 4 = \square$$

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Three tomatoes and four tomatoes. How many are there altogether?

4

$$7 + 2 =$$

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Seven potatoes and two potatoes. How many are there altogether?

$$9 + 1 = \square$$

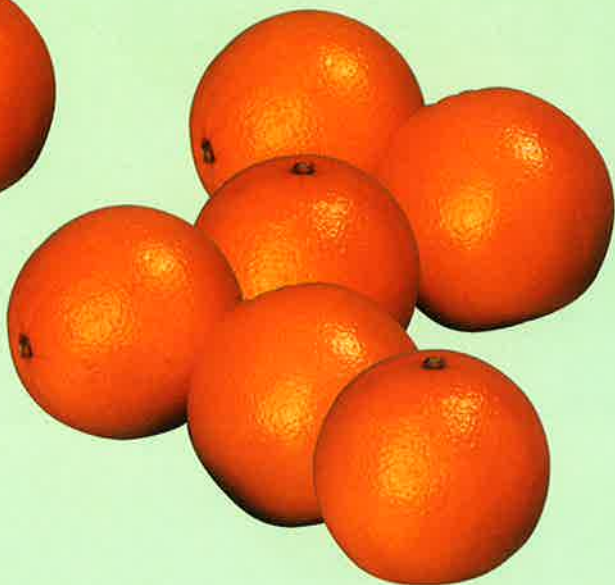

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Nine pea pods plus one pea pod. How many are there altogether?

6

$$3 + 6 =$$

Three oranges and six oranges. How many are there altogether?