The Kite

Ehud and Elisa like flying kites. One windy day Ehud’s kite goes up and he can’t see it. Ehud is sad. Then it comes down in Elisa’s garden. Elisa gives Ehud his kite and he is happy. But then Ehud and Elisa look at their fathers. Their fathers aren’t friends. They are sad. Can the children think of a way to make everyone happy?

Mr Zimmermann has got a son. His name is Ehud. Ehud has got a kite. He likes flying kites. Mr Barakat has got a daughter. Her name is Elisa. Elisa has got a kite, too.

I like flying kites!
Today it’s sunny and windy. Ehud is flying a red kite. He’s very happy.

It’s not windy today, Dad. I can’t fly my kite.

Look! That boy is flying a red kite.

Yes, it’s windy there. But it isn’t windy here.
The red kite is flying up and up and up. But it’s not windy on the other side of the fence. Elisa is not flying her kite. She’s not happy.

What colour is Elisa’s kite?
It’s ___________________________.
Play Station Project

Kite

Make your own kite.

You need:

- string
- 1 large plastic bag
- 2 sticks of bamboo (1 of 90 cm, 1 of 60 cm)
- glue
- coloured paper
- scissors
- knife

1. Make a cross with the two sticks and tie them with the string.
2. Ask an adult to make a small cut at the top of each bamboo.
3. Pull the string through the cuts and tie it tightly.
4. Cut the plastic sail. Make sure it is 2-3 cm bigger than the kite frame.
5. Put the frame on top of the plastic sail. Fold the plastic over the string and glue it.
6. Tie a piece of string to the top and bottom of the kite. The string must be longer than the stick.
7. Tie a long piece of string to the bottom of the kite. Decorate it with pieces of coloured paper. And fly your kite!
