2 Listen. Say the poem.
Then look, read, match and colour the frames.

E H is for homework
That’s schoolwork at home:
Reading and writing
And learning a poem.

H is for hamster
My favourite pet.
And when he’s not well
Then I am the vet!

H is for hair
That grows from your head.
It’s blonde and it’s brown
It’s black and it’s red.
Henry Harris hates haitches. He hates haitches more than he hates homework.
Find 4 things in the picture that look like ‘H’. What are they?

A ..................................................  B ..................................................
C ..................................................  D ..................................................
He even hates haitches more than he hates Hannah Hunter.
And Hannah Hunter is very hateful.
“Ha! Ha! There’s ’Enry ’Arris! ’ow’s your ’itches, ’Enry?! Ha! Ha!”

I like pizza 🍕 more than chips 🍟. What about you?
I like ___________________ more than ___________________.

For teachers’ inspection ONLY
Henry likes Harry. They are friends.
“Hello, Henry.”
“’Ey! ’Arry! ’Ow are you?”

Who is your best friend?

“Morning Henry,” says Miss Hill the History teacher. “Have you got your homework?”

“Arry! I ’aven’t got my ’omework,” says Henry to his friend.

“Oh Henry, you’ve never got your homework!” says Harry.

Miss Hill isn’t happy.

“Hand me your homework, Henry!”
