Monkey's Skateboard

Story by Annette Smith

Illustrations by Chantal Stewart

PM Stars

Monkey's Skateboard

Level 6 Running Words 121

Key High-frequency Words

his, ride, stay, will, your

Key Teaching Points

- Read another book about the characters Little Teddy and Monkey.
- Discuss Monkey's enthusiasm. Note that he often forgets that Little Teddy is much smaller than himself.

Key Questions

- Why did Little Teddy say "No" on pages 4 and 8? (Literal)
- How did Rabbit help when Monkey and Little Teddy had a race? (Inferential)

Word Study

- Change the onset to make new words, e.g. no, go; me, we, he.
- Recognise words that begin with the same initial consonant, e.g. rabbit, race, ride.

Links with Other PM Books

PM Stars Narratives	The Big Ball	Level 3
PM Gems	Little Teddy and Monkey	Level 3

For Review Only

"Look at me!" shouted Monkey.

Monkey went up and down,
and up and down,
on his skateboard.

For Review Only

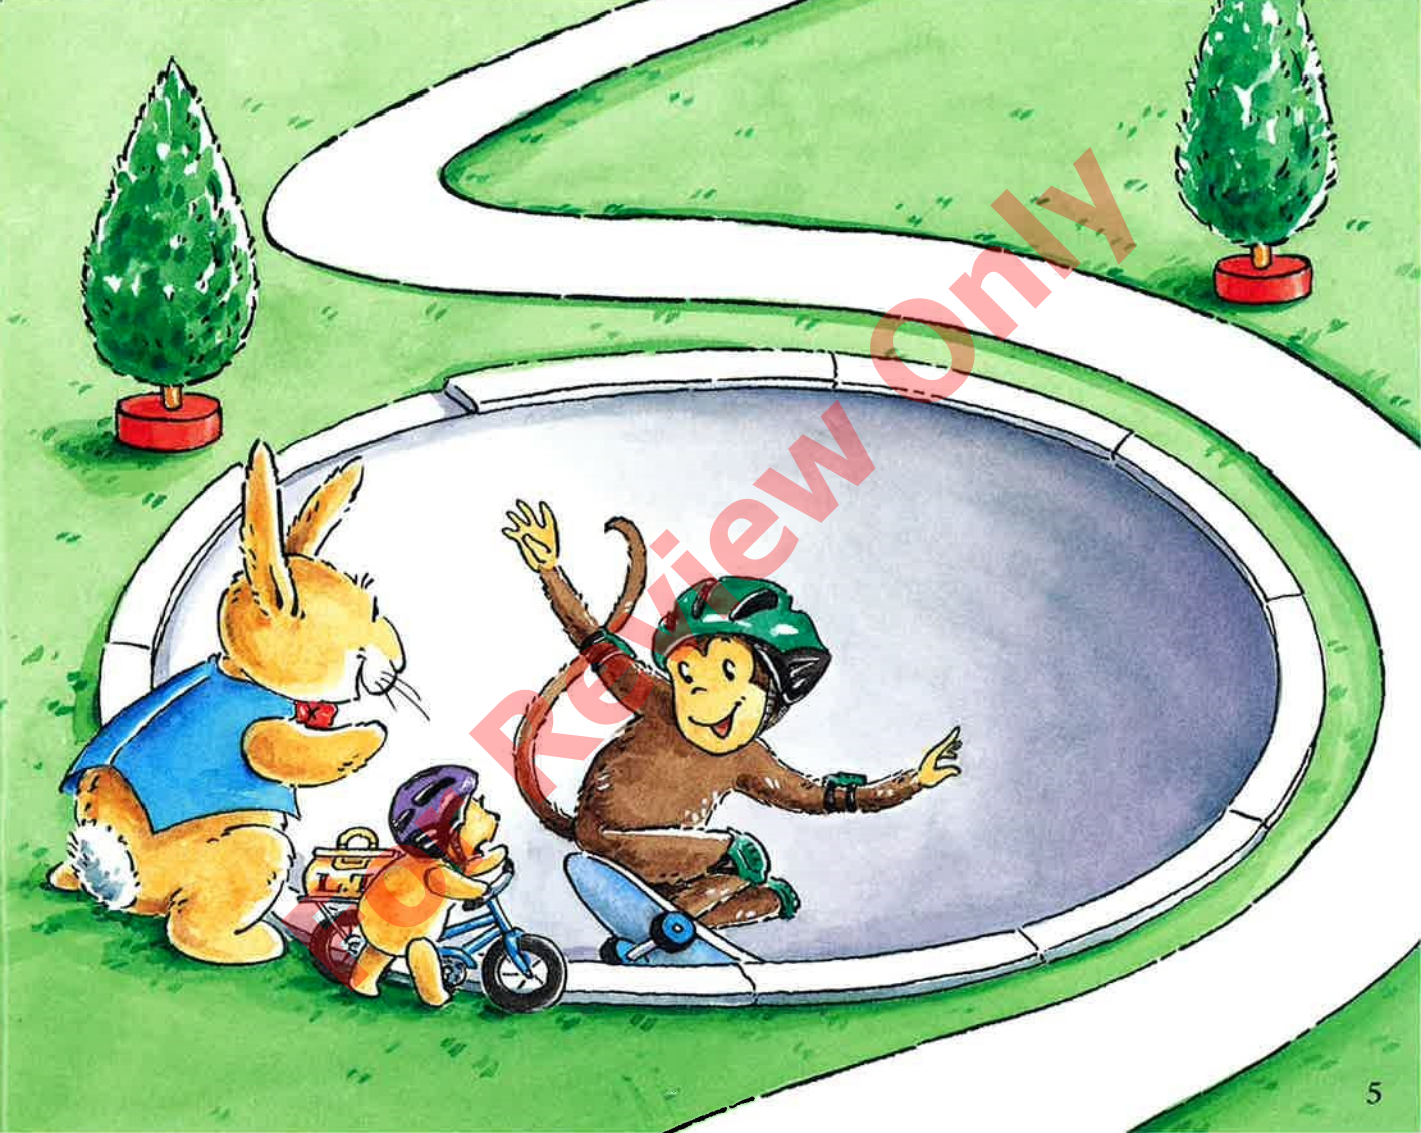

For Review Only

"Little Teddy!" shouted Monkey.
"You can ride my skateboard."

"No," said Little Teddy.
"Your skateboard is too big for me!"

For Review Only

For Review Only

"I can ride your skateboard," said Rabbit.

"Look at Rabbit!" shouted Monkey.

For Review Only

For Review Only