Sally and Red Boy

Story by Jackie Tidey
Illustrations by Meredith Thomas

PM Stars

Sally and Red Boy

Level 12 Running Words 219

Key High-frequency Words

around, if, put, smiled, someone, there, wants

Key Teaching Points

- Talk about Sally's reluctance to go to the farm.
- Invite students to share experiences of when they have had pleasant surprises.

Key Questions

- Why did Dad tell Sally to cheer up? (Inferential)
- What did Sally mean when she said, "Dad, you tricked me"? (Inferential)

Word Study

- Find words in the story that begin with the digraph th: there, then, this.
- Locate the prefix a- in these words: around, asleep. Clap the syllables.

Links with Other PM Books

PM Library	The Island Picnic	Level 14
PM Early Chapters	Red Boy's New Game	Level 15

For Review Only

At breakfast, Dad said to Sally,
"I have a surprise for you today.
We are going to a farm."

"Oh, Dad," said Sally.
"I like playing with Rebecca on Saturdays."

For Review Only

RUSSKY MIR

"Not today, Sally," said Dad.
"There is a little boy with red hair
at the farm.
He will love playing with you."

"But Dad, I like to play with big children," said Sally.

Sally did not look happy.

For Review Only

For review only

"Cheer up, Sally," said Dad.
"You will like it at the farm."

Sally put on her coat and off they went.

For Review Only

For review only