Markets

Annette Smith

Markets

Levels 14/15

Running Words 201

Curriculum Areas Social Studies; Health and Physical Well-being

Text Type Information Report

Focus Leisure and Work

Key High-frequency Words

could, held, kept, need, sell

Key Teaching Points

- Reinforce the key features of non-fiction texts.
- Talk about the temporary attributes of a stall.
- Discuss why people shop at markets.

Key Questions

- Why must fish and meat be kept very cold all the time? (Literal)
- What happens to flowers if they are not put in water? (Inferential)

Word Study

- Discuss the sounds: -ell, -all, -ould. Find words in the book with these sounds.
- Talk about the suffix -y on slowly. Add this suffix to quick, sad.

Links with Other PM Stars Non-fiction Books

PM Stars Non-fiction	Clifton Market	Levels 14/15
PM Stars Non-fiction	Roads	Levels 14/15

For Review Only

Markets

Annette Smith

For Review Only

Contents

What Are Markets?	2
Where Are Markets Held?	4
Farmers' Markets	6
Market Stalls	8
Flower Markets	12
Markets Around the World	14
Glossary	16

What Are Markets?

Markets are places where people take things to sell.

Lots of people go to markets to buy things they need.

Some people go to markets to have fun.

For Review Only

FRUIT STALL CLOSED
THURS 28TH
MAY OPEN
THURS 5TH JUNE
BANANAS
Marica

Where Are Markets Held?

Markets are held in lots of places.

Some are held in parks,
or in school grounds.

Some are held inside big buildings.

For Review Only

For Review Only

Farmers' Markets

At farmers' markets,
there are lots of stalls
with food to buy.

People walk slowly
from stall to stall.

They want to buy
the best fruit and vegetables.

For Review Only

