Zac loved watching rally cars on TV.
One day, a man came to live next door.
He had a rally car in his garage.

Zac (to Dad)

The man next door owns a real rally car.
It is bright red and yellow and it has special tyres.

Dad

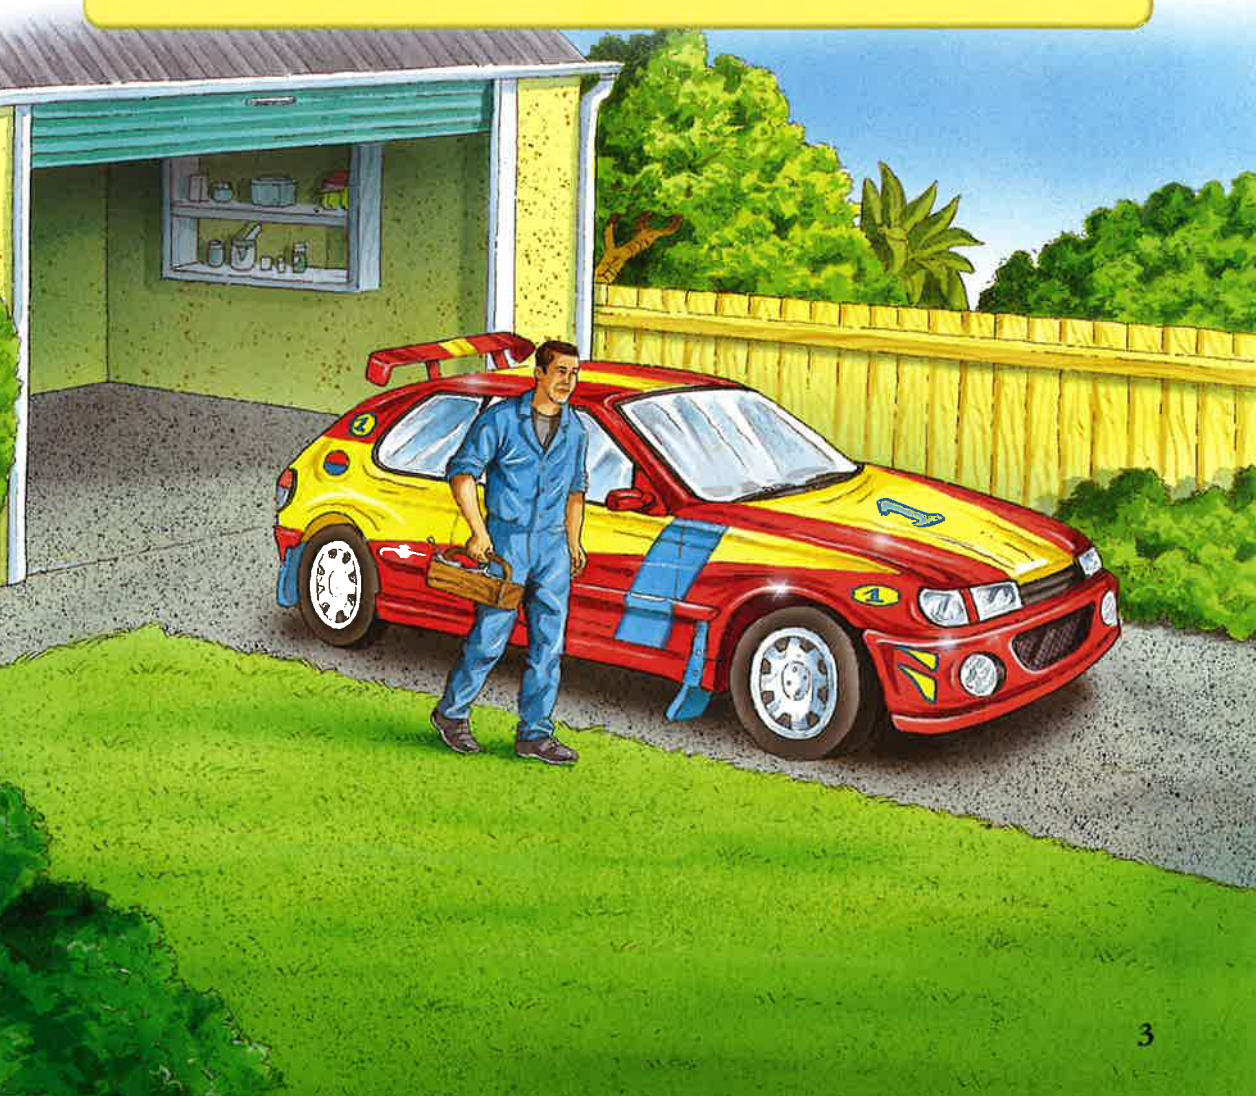

Stay by the fence.
You can see the car from there.

Every weekend,
the man would bring the rally car
out of the garage.
Zac would watch him.

The man would walk around his car
and clean it.
He would look underneath it
and check the engine.
One Saturday …

Zac (calling out)

Please can I come and look at your car?

Man from Next Door (crossly)
No, I'm too busy.
This car is going to be in an important race next weekend.

Dad
Don't worry, Zac.
I know where that race will be held.
I'll take you to see it.

The next Saturday, Zac and his dad stood with the other people at the sideline.

Dad

Look, Zac!
The teams are getting the rally cars ready for the races.

Zac (shouting)
There's the man from next door!
Hello! Hello!

Reader
The man nodded at Zac
and turned away quickly.
