"Come on, Toby," said BJ
to his tow truck, one wet day.
"We have to go to River Road Farm.
We have to get a cow out of a ditch."

BJ climbed into the tow truck,
and away they went down the road.

The farmer was waiting for them
by the gate.
"Follow me," he said.

"You are just in time," the farmer said.
"The water is coming up fast.
My best cow is down in a ditch,
and I can't get her out
with the tractor."

BJ and Toby
followed the farmer.
They went down the farm track

"She's down there," called the farmer,
and Toby stopped.

"We will have to back up to the ditch, Toby," said BJ.
"That's it! Now stop!"

"Moo-oo-oo," said the cow.
