What Trucks Do

Trucks are vehicles.
They can be small, big or very big!

People can do lots of jobs with trucks.

Small trucks can move things like boxes and tables.

Some trucks can tow away cars
that have broken down.

Big trucks can move lots of cars all at once.

Firefighters need big trucks to help put out fires.

Sometimes, very big trucks can move houses!

Small Trucks

Lots of jobs can be done with small trucks.

At the airport, small trucks move the planes from place to place.

Sometimes, the trucks push the planes,
so they are near to the runway.
Then, the plane can take off.

Some trucks are rubbish trucks.

These trucks are not very big,
but sometimes they need to move big loads.
They can pick up rubbish outside shops,
houses and schools.

The arm on a rubbish truck
can lift up a rubbish bin.
The rubbish falls into the back of the truck.

A rubbish truck is always needed
to lift big, heavy bins.
