Lost in the Forest

· Story by Beverley Randell

Illustrations by Ben Spiby

Lost in the Forest

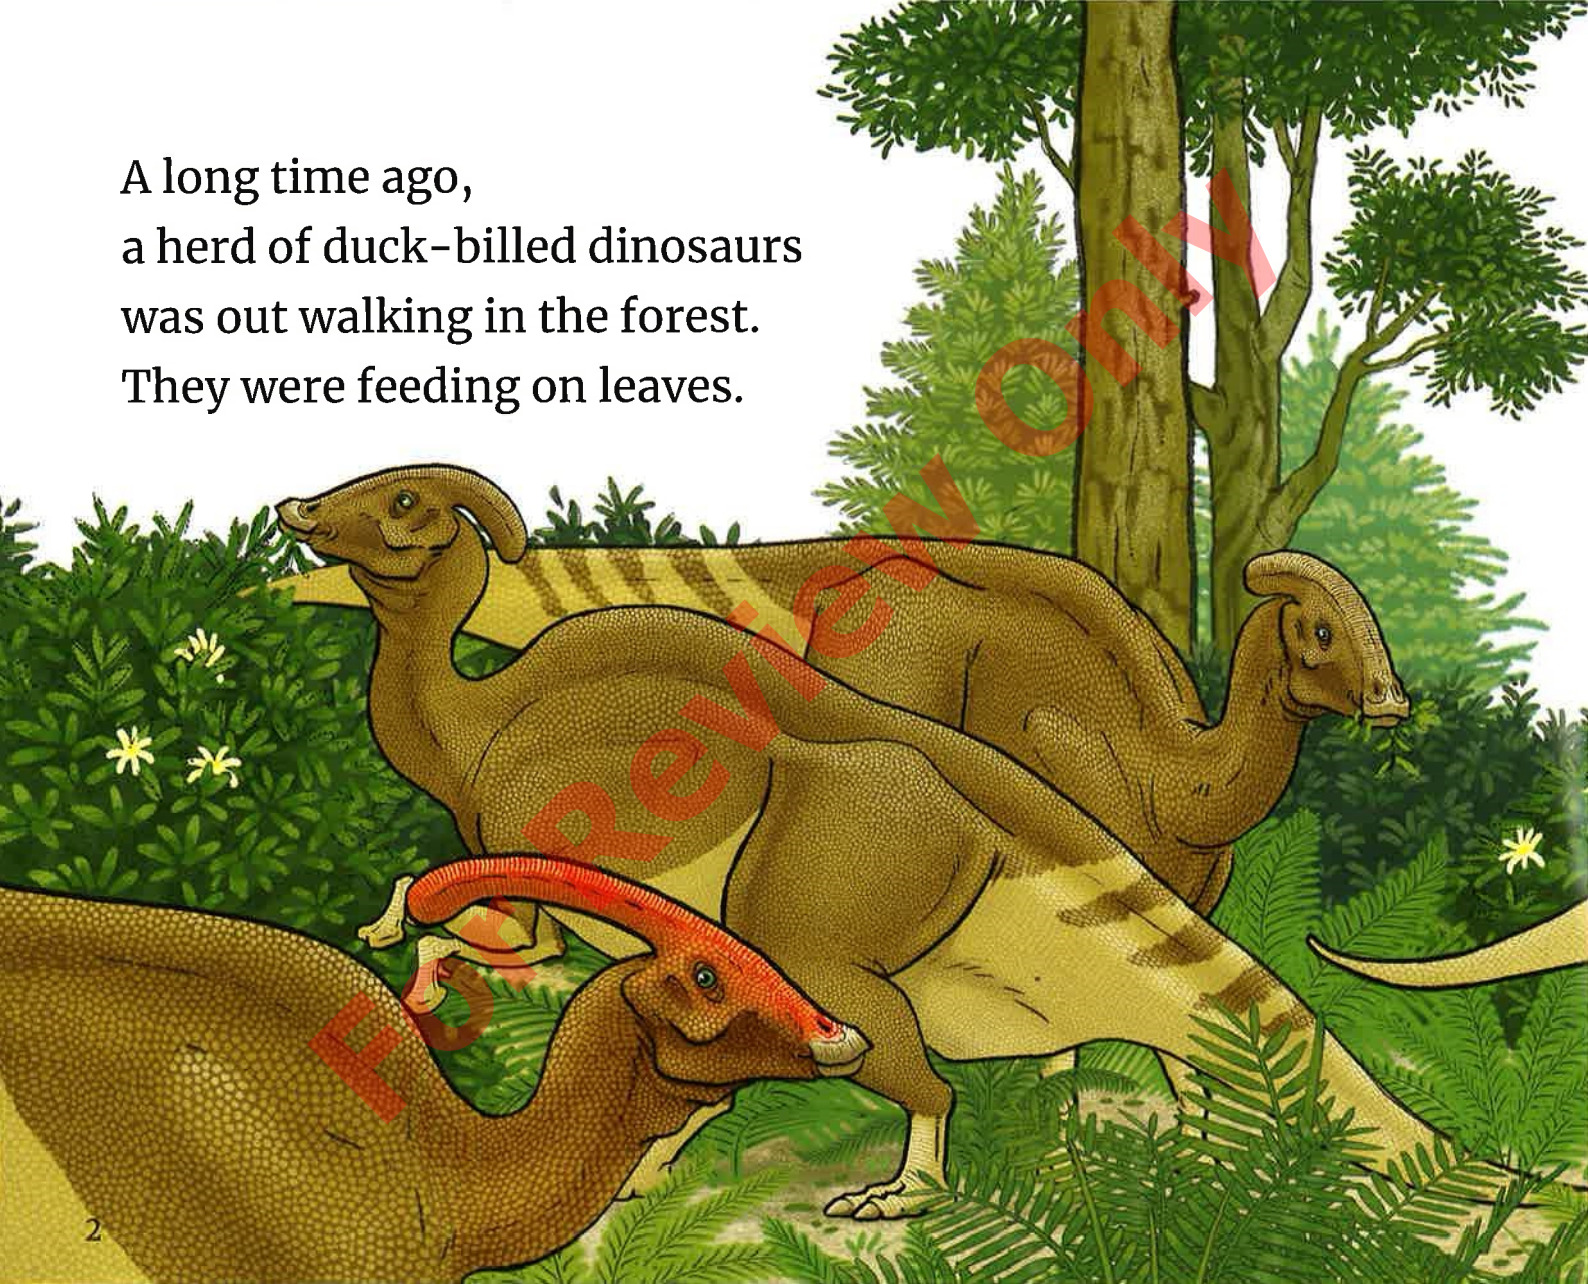

Story by Beverley Randell

Illustrations by Ben Spiby

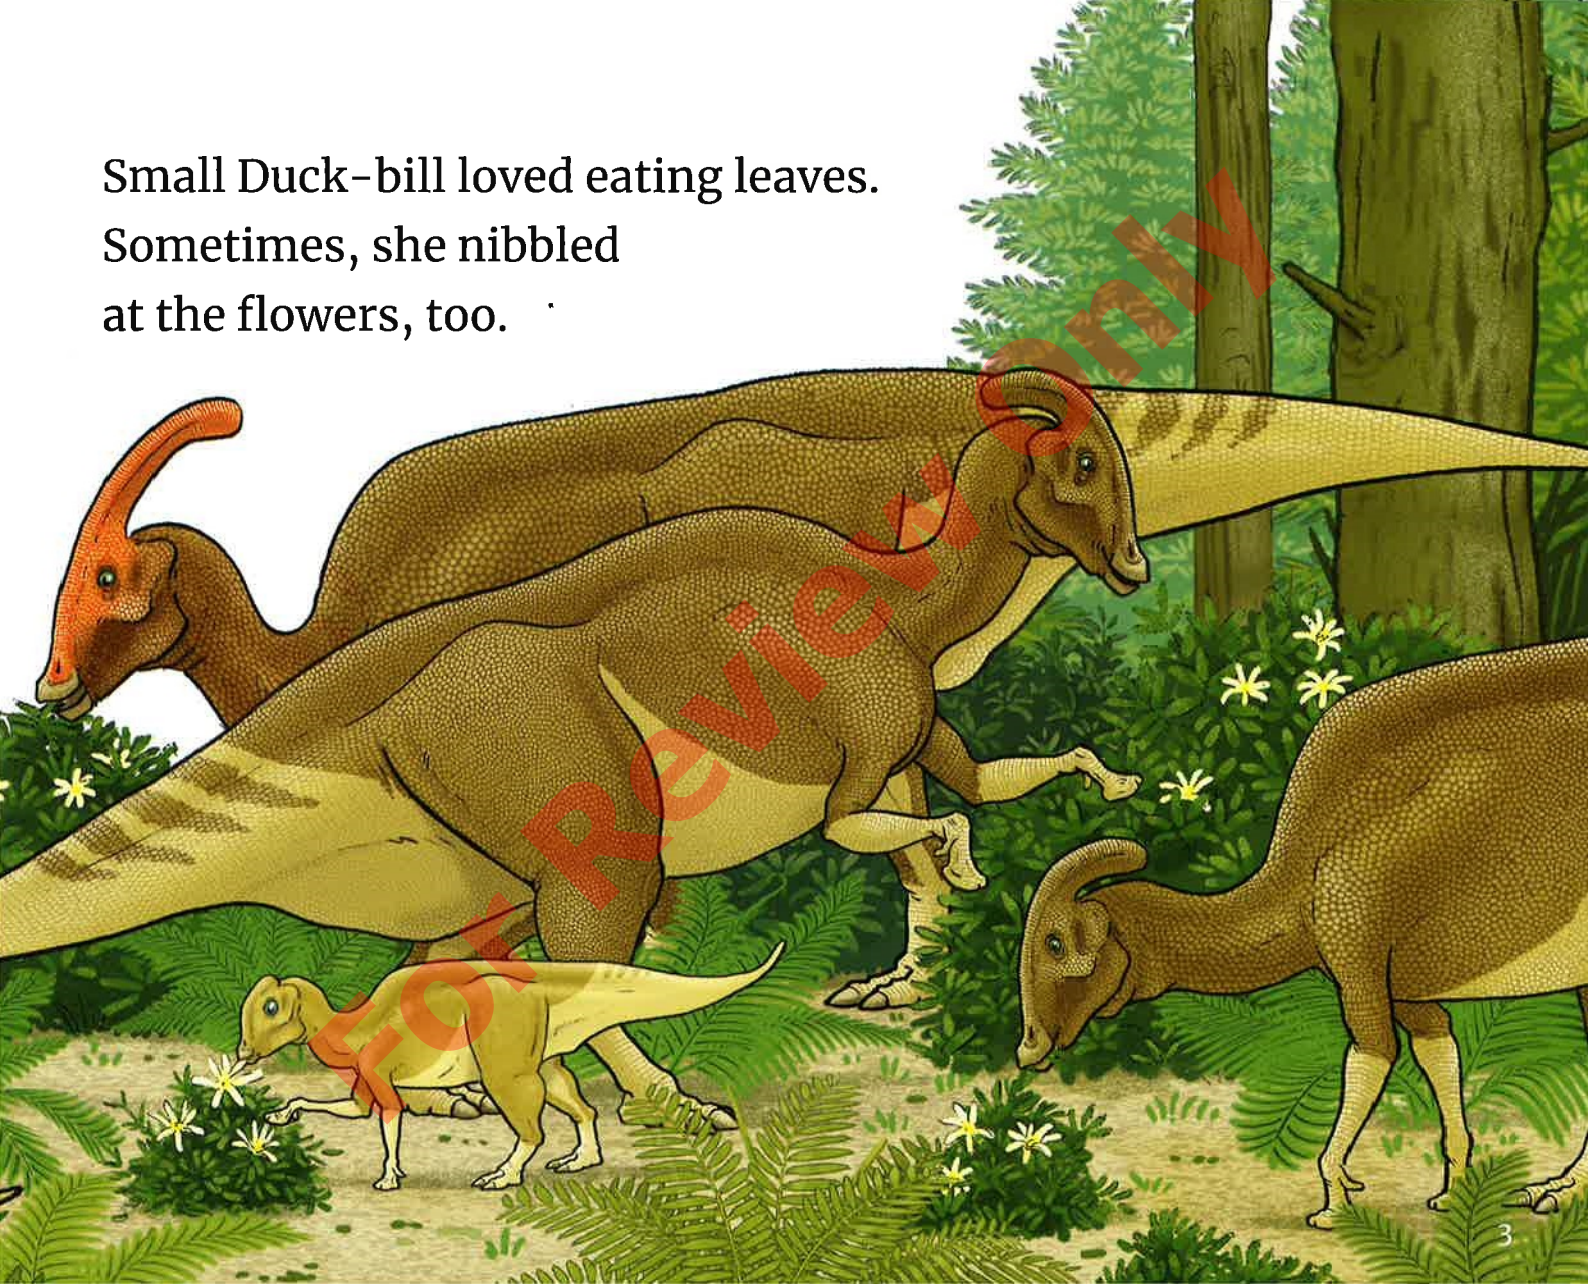

For Review Only

A long time ago,
a herd of duck-billed dinosaurs
was out walking in the forest.
They were feeding on leaves.

For Review Only

Small Duck-bill loved eating leaves.
Sometimes, she nibbled
at the flowers, too.

For Review Only

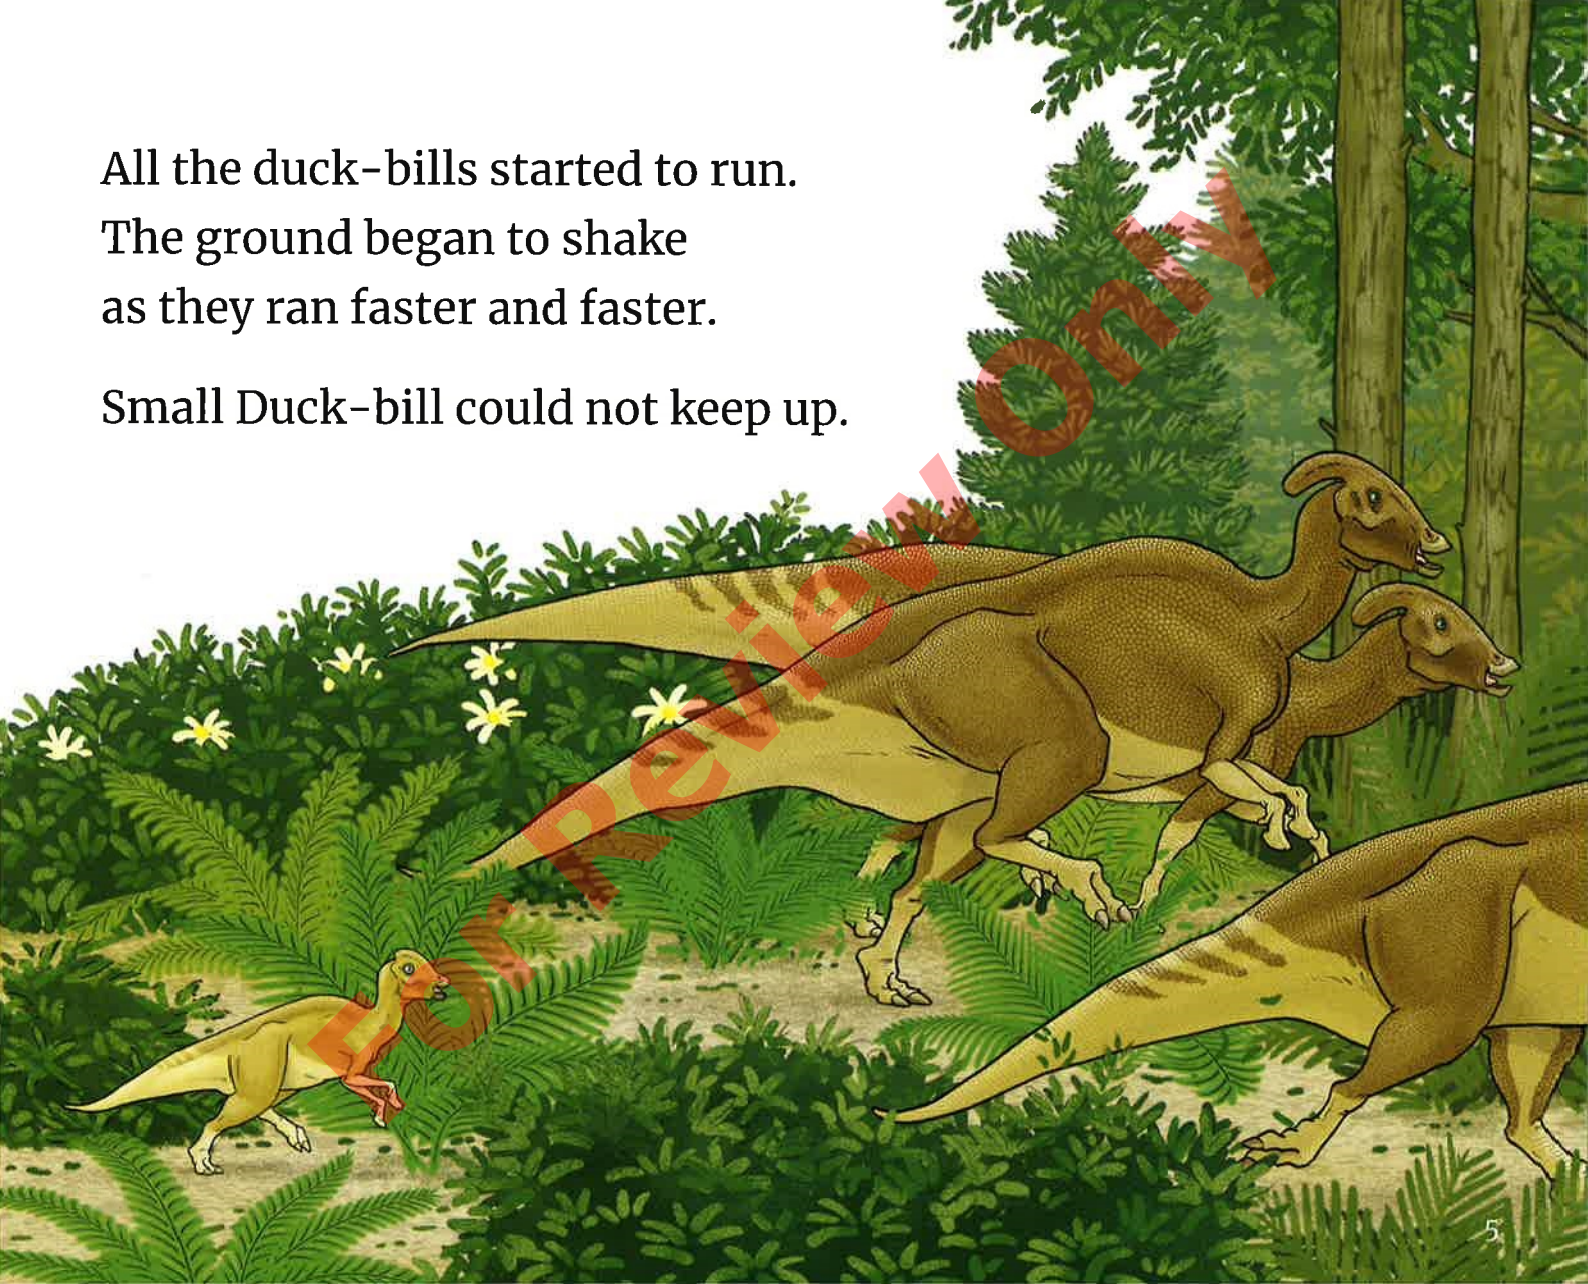

The tallest duck-bill
put his head up to smell the air,
and then he hooted.

Something was coming.
Something enormous was coming!

For Review Only

All the duck-bills started to run.
The ground began to shake
as they ran faster and faster.

Small Duck-bill could not keep up.

For Review only

The ground shook more and more.

Thump, thump!
Thump, thump!

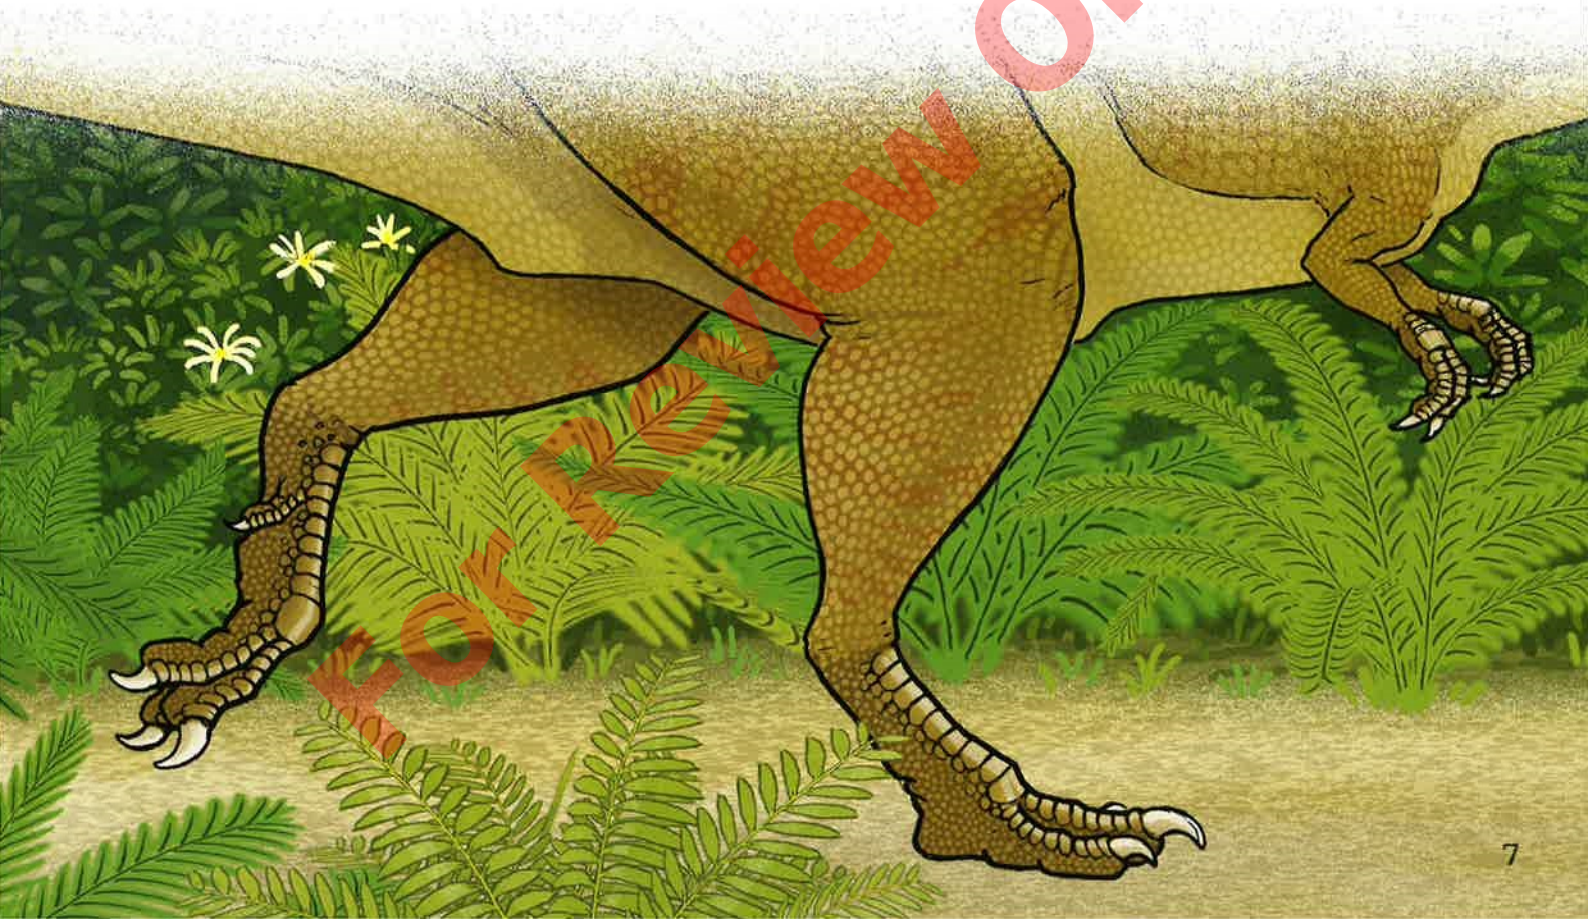

What was coming?

Small Duck-bill ran and hid under the ferns.
She saw two great big enormous legs run past.

For Review Only

Thump, thump!
Thump, thump!

For Review Only