The Yellow Belt

Story by Carmel Reilly

Illustrations by Victor McLindon

PM

The Yellow Belt

Story by Carmel Reilly
Illustrations by Victor McLindon

For Review Only

Contents

Chapter 1	The First Test	2
Chapter 2	A Big Jacket	6
Chapter 3	Very Long Sleeves!	10
Chapter 4	Keep on Moving	14

Chapter 1

The First Test

Noah couldn't wait
to get to his karate class.

Today, he was having his first test.

Noah was a beginner,
so he had a white belt.
If he did well in his test,
he would move up to the next level.
Then he could wear a yellow belt.

For Review Only

for Review Only

Mum and Noah walked into the gym.

"It's time to put your karate jacket on, Noah," said Mum.
"The test will begin soon."

Noah looked in his bag.
But his jacket was not there.

"Oh, no!" he cried. "I can't do the test if I don't have a jacket!"

For Review Only

For Review Only

Chapter 2

A Big Jacket

A girl was standing near Mum and Noah.

"I have a jacket that you can wear,"
she said to Noah.

She opened her bag
and pulled out a new white jacket.

"Won't it be too big for me?" asked Noah.

"Not if we push up the sleeves," said Mum.

For Review Only

For Review Only