PM guided reading cards

About | Answers

Level 12 Cards

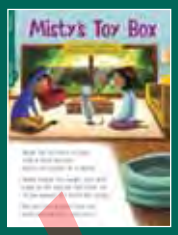

A Race in the Snow
Narrative (Imaginative)

Who Will Win?
Narrative (Imaginative)

The Dinosaur Show
Narrative (Imaginative)

Misty's Toy Box
Narrative (Imaginative)

Level 13 Cards

The Swinging Boat
Narrative (Imaginative)

Where Is Teeny?
Narrative (Imaginative)

The Show and Tell Surprise
Narrative (Imaginative)

The Lost Doll
Narrative (Imaginative)

Level 14 Cards

Run, Jump, Squeak!
Narrative (Imaginative)

Seeing the Elephants
Narrative (Imaginative)

Sam and the Scooter
Narrative (Imaginative)

Strawberries for Breakfast
Narrative (Imaginative)

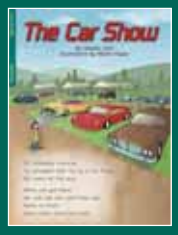

Levels 14/15 Cards

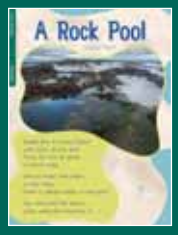

The Bird Rescue
Recount (Imaginative)

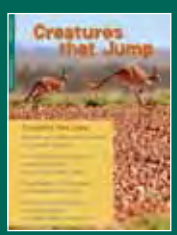

How to Make a Herb Garden
Procedure (Informative)

The Car Show
Recount (Imaginative)

A Rock Pool
Information Report (Informative)

Creatures that Jump
Information Report (Informative)

The Chinese New Year Parade
Description (Informative)

Making a Clay Model Elephant
Procedure (Informative)

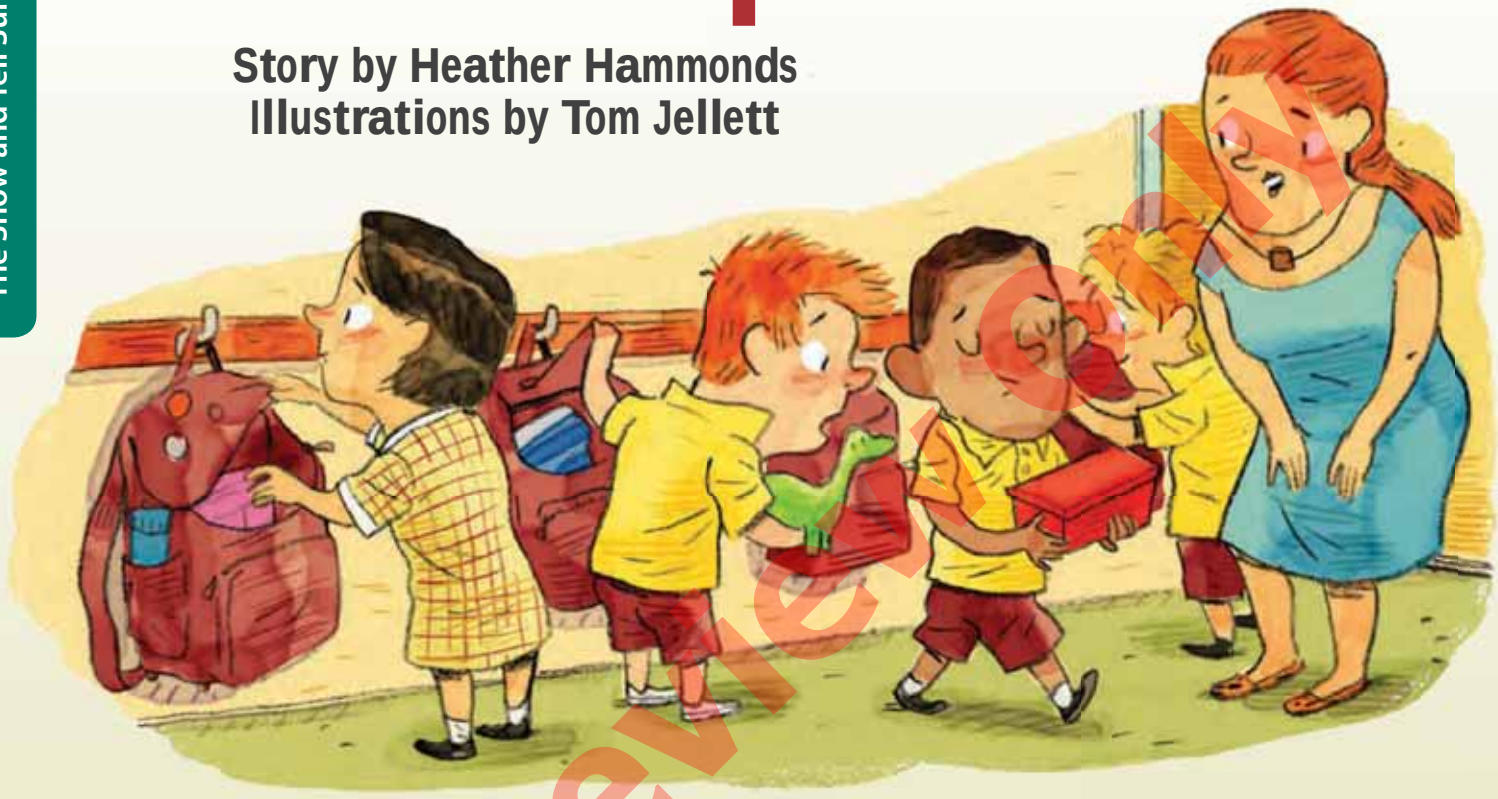

At the Play
Recount (Imaginative)

For Review Only

The Show and Tell Surprise

Story by Heather Hammonds
Illustrations by Tom Jellett

For Review Only

"It's time for Show and Tell," said Ms Scott.
"Today, Mimi, Jack and Corey are going to talk to us."

Mimi had a new book,
and Jack had a toy dinosaur.

Corey took a red box
from his school bag.
"I have a surprise in this box,"
he said to Jack.

“Can I look in the box?” said Jack.

“No!” laughed Corey.

Mimi and Jack talked to the class first.

Then, it was Corey’s turn.
He slowly took the lid off the red box.
“I put my favourite rocks in this box,”
he said. “I have some fossils, too.”

“What are fossils?” said Jack.

“I will show you,” said Corey.

Corey took the rocks and fossils out of the box.
“This is a sandstone rock,” he said,
“and this is a shark-tooth fossil.”

For Review Only

"You have four rocks and a fossil in your box," said Mimi,
"but there is room for one more."

"I have a fossil in my hand," said Corey.
"Can you tell me what it is?"

"Is the fossil very old?" asked Ms Scott.

"Yes," said Corey. "It's very old."

"Is it a little dinosaur?" said Jack.

"No," said Corey.

For Review Only

"Is it round?" said Mimi.

"Yes," said Corey. "It is!"

"Please show us,"
the children called out.

Corey opened his hand.
"Surprise!" he said.
"It's a sea-snail fossil."

"That's a very good Show and Tell surprise," said Ms Scott.

For Review Only

Retell this Narrative

Read this story again.
Record yourself as you retell the story.
Listen to the recording.
Check! Did you remember most things in the story?

Questions about The Show and Tell Surprise

1 What had Jack brought to school for Show and Tell?
2 Why didn't Corey let Jack look in the box?
3 What was the rock made of?
4 Why did Corey keep the fossil in his hand?
5 What was the fossil in Corey's hand?
6 Why did Ms Scott tell Corey it was a very good surprise?

PM NELSON A Cengage Company
Text Type: Narrative (Imaginative)
Curriculum Area: Literacy
ISBN: 978 0 17 040330 6 (set)
© 2017 Cengage Learning Australia Pty Ltd

The Chinese New Year Parade

By Carmel Reilly

A Chinese New Year parade is held every year in Chinatown.

It is a big parade
and there is always a lot to see.

The parade starts with drummers.
They walk along the street hitting their drums.

Girls and boys walk behind them,
holding up big, red paper lanterns.
Some of them have red flowers, too.
Red brings good luck for the new year.

For Review Only

Next comes the dragon.
The dragon is like a big puppet.
It is made from paper and wood.
It is so heavy that 20 people are needed to lift it.

The dragon is painted red and yellow.
It has a big head,
with black and white eyes,
and a big mouth.

More drummers walk
behind the dragon.

For Review

The lion comes after the drummers.
The lion is like a big puppet, too,
but it is much smaller than the dragon.
It just needs two people to hold it up.

The lion is white, green and red.
It has a big, round head and big eyes.
It skips and jumps around.

My family comes to see the Chinese New Year parade every year.

We like to watch the dragon and the lion, and see the red paper lanterns.

For Review Only

When the parade is over,
we have some of our favourite food in Chinatown.

Retell this Description

Read this description again.

Record yourself as you retell the description.

Listen to the recording.

Check! Did you remember most things in the description?

Questions about The Chinese New Year Parade

1 When is the parade held in Chinatown?
2 Why do drummers start the parade?
3 Which colour brings good luck?
4 Why is the dragon like a big puppet?
5 Why does the family like to watch the dragon and the lion?
6 How many people are needed to hold the lion?

For Review Only

PM NELSON A Cengage Company
Text Type: Description (Informative)
Curriculum Areas: Humanities; Literacy
ISBN: 978 0 17 040330 6 (set)
© 2017 Cengage Learning Australia Pty Ltd