

Springboard into Comprehension

Identifying Detail Giant Squid

Main Idea The Honey Bird and the Badger

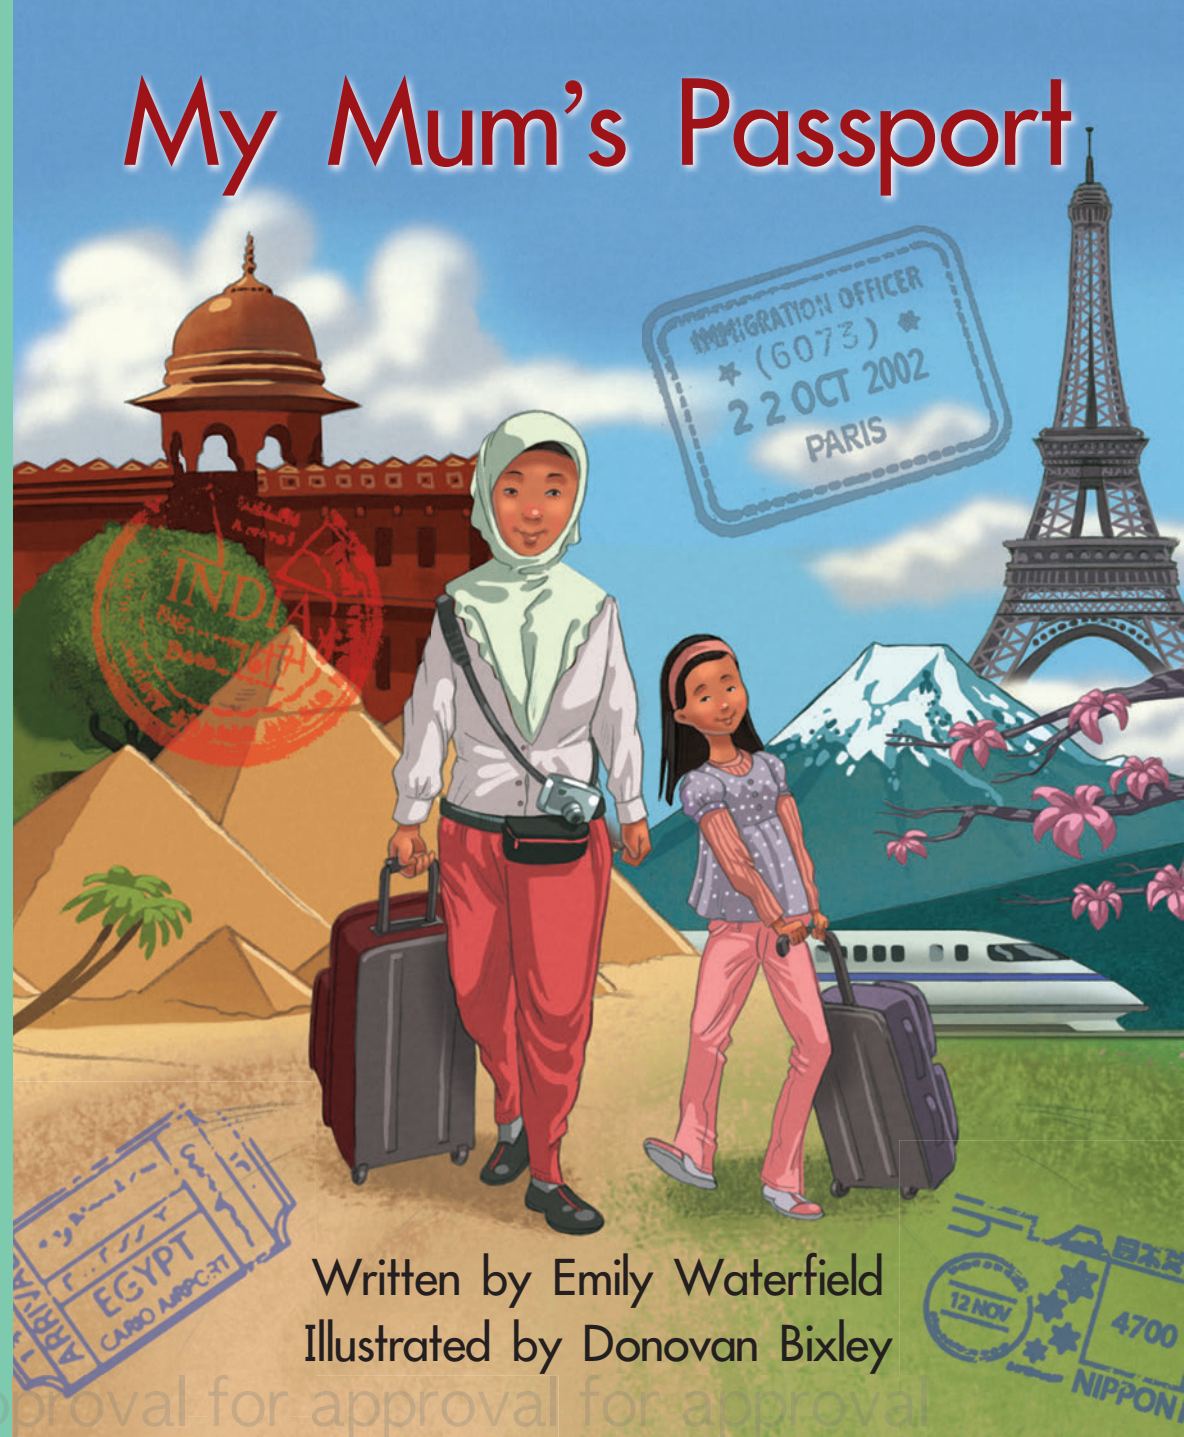

Sequencing Sushi

Compare and Contrast Crocodiles and Alligators

18

Fact and Opinion My Mum's Passport

Cause and Effect Elephants Walk for Water

Written by Emily Waterfield
Illustrated by Donovan Bixley

My Mum's Passport

Written by Emily Waterfield
Illustrated by Donovan Bixley

Azura and her mum were going to Malaysia together. Mum was looking for her passport.

“I’m sure it is safe,” she said.
“Ah! Here it is.”

“I’m happy you found it,” said Azura.
“But why do you need a passport?”

“It says who you are,” said Mum.
“It says what country you’re from.
It is one of the most important things you can have.”

“Why is your passport so important?”
asked Azura.

“It helps you enter different countries,”
said Mum.

“It helps you leave them again.
It will help us get to Malaysia
and back to Australia.
All those things are very, very important.”

