

Springboard into Comprehension

Identifying Detail Cockroaches

Main Idea Trading In

Sequencing Kangaroo Gets a Pouch

Compare and Contrast Big-Nosed Monkeys

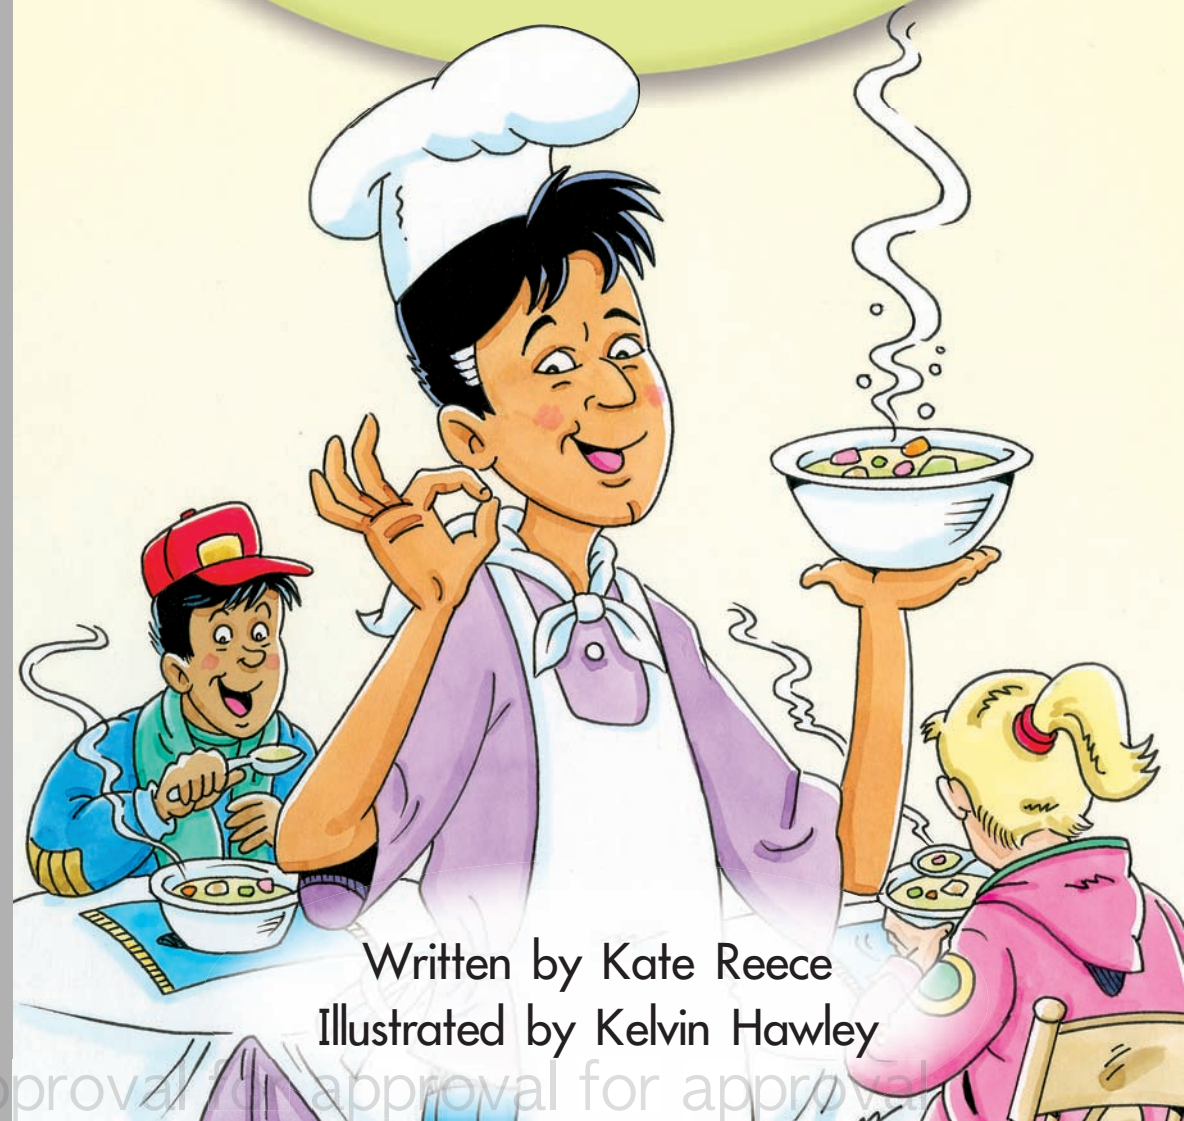

23

Fact and Opinion The Best Soup in Town

Cause and Effect Bending Metal

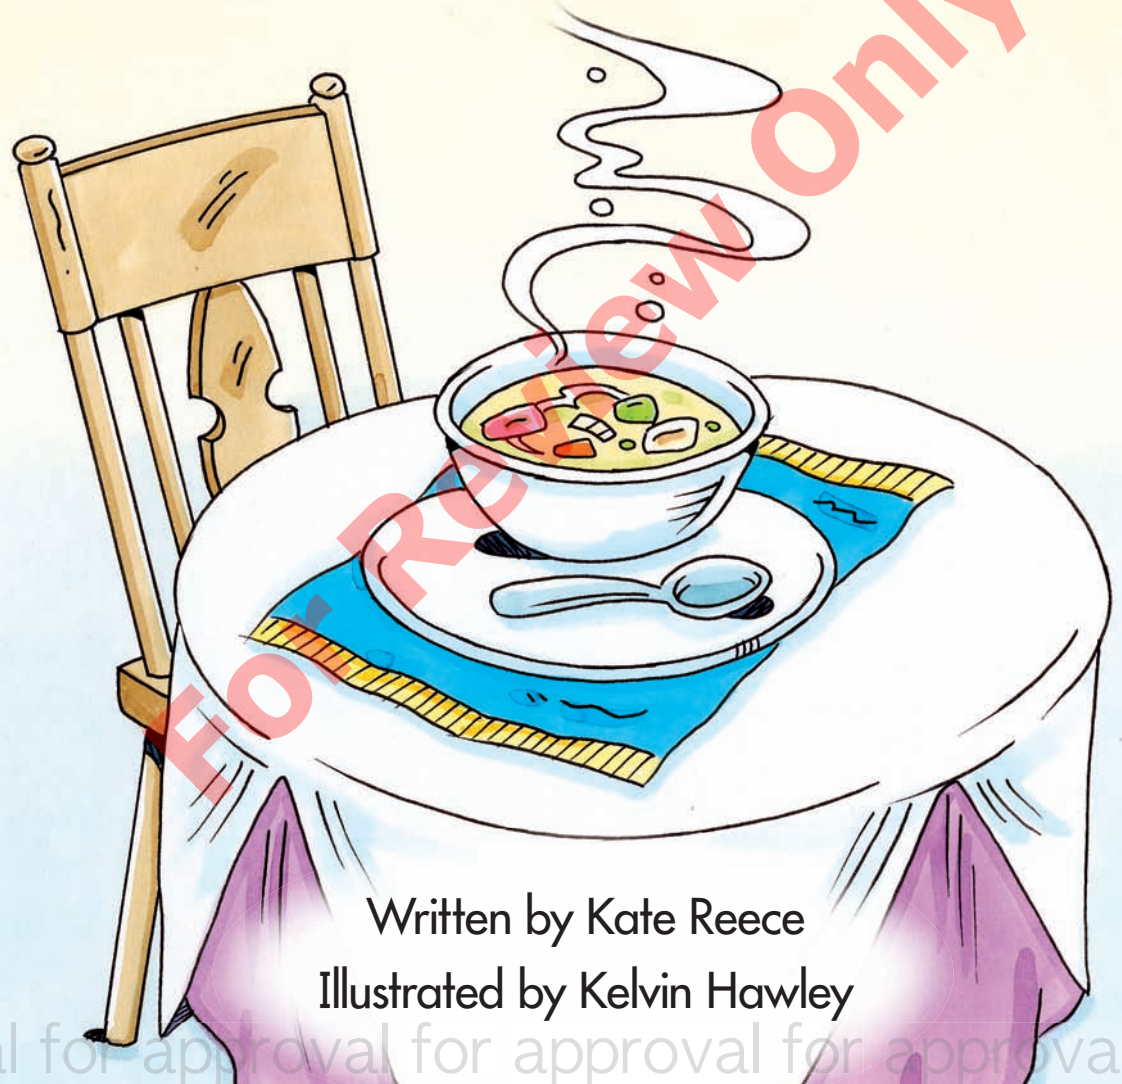

The Best Soup in Town

Written by Kate Reece
Illustrated by Kelvin Hawley

The Best Soup in Town

Written by Kate Reece

Illustrated by Kelvin Hawley

Tom is a cook.
People say that his soup
is the best soup in town.

Every morning, Tom rides his bicycle to the market to buy fresh vegetables
for the soup he sells at his café.

Tom buys juicy tomatoes
from Mr Milo's shop every time.

"These tomatoes are juicy and tasty," says Mr Milo.
"I think they are the juiciest tomatoes anywhere."

Tom gets green vegetables from Mrs Lee every time.

“The celery and spinach grow in my market garden,” says Mrs Lee.

“I believe they are the crunchiest green vegetables around.”

Mr Buzzoni sells Tom potatoes and carrots.

“These vegetables are freshly picked every morning,” says Mr Buzzoni.

“I’m sure they are the freshest potatoes and carrots in the market.”

When Tom has bought everything he needs, he loads it into a box on his bicycle. He puts on his helmet and rides his bicycle back to his café.

