Chapter One

The Healthy King

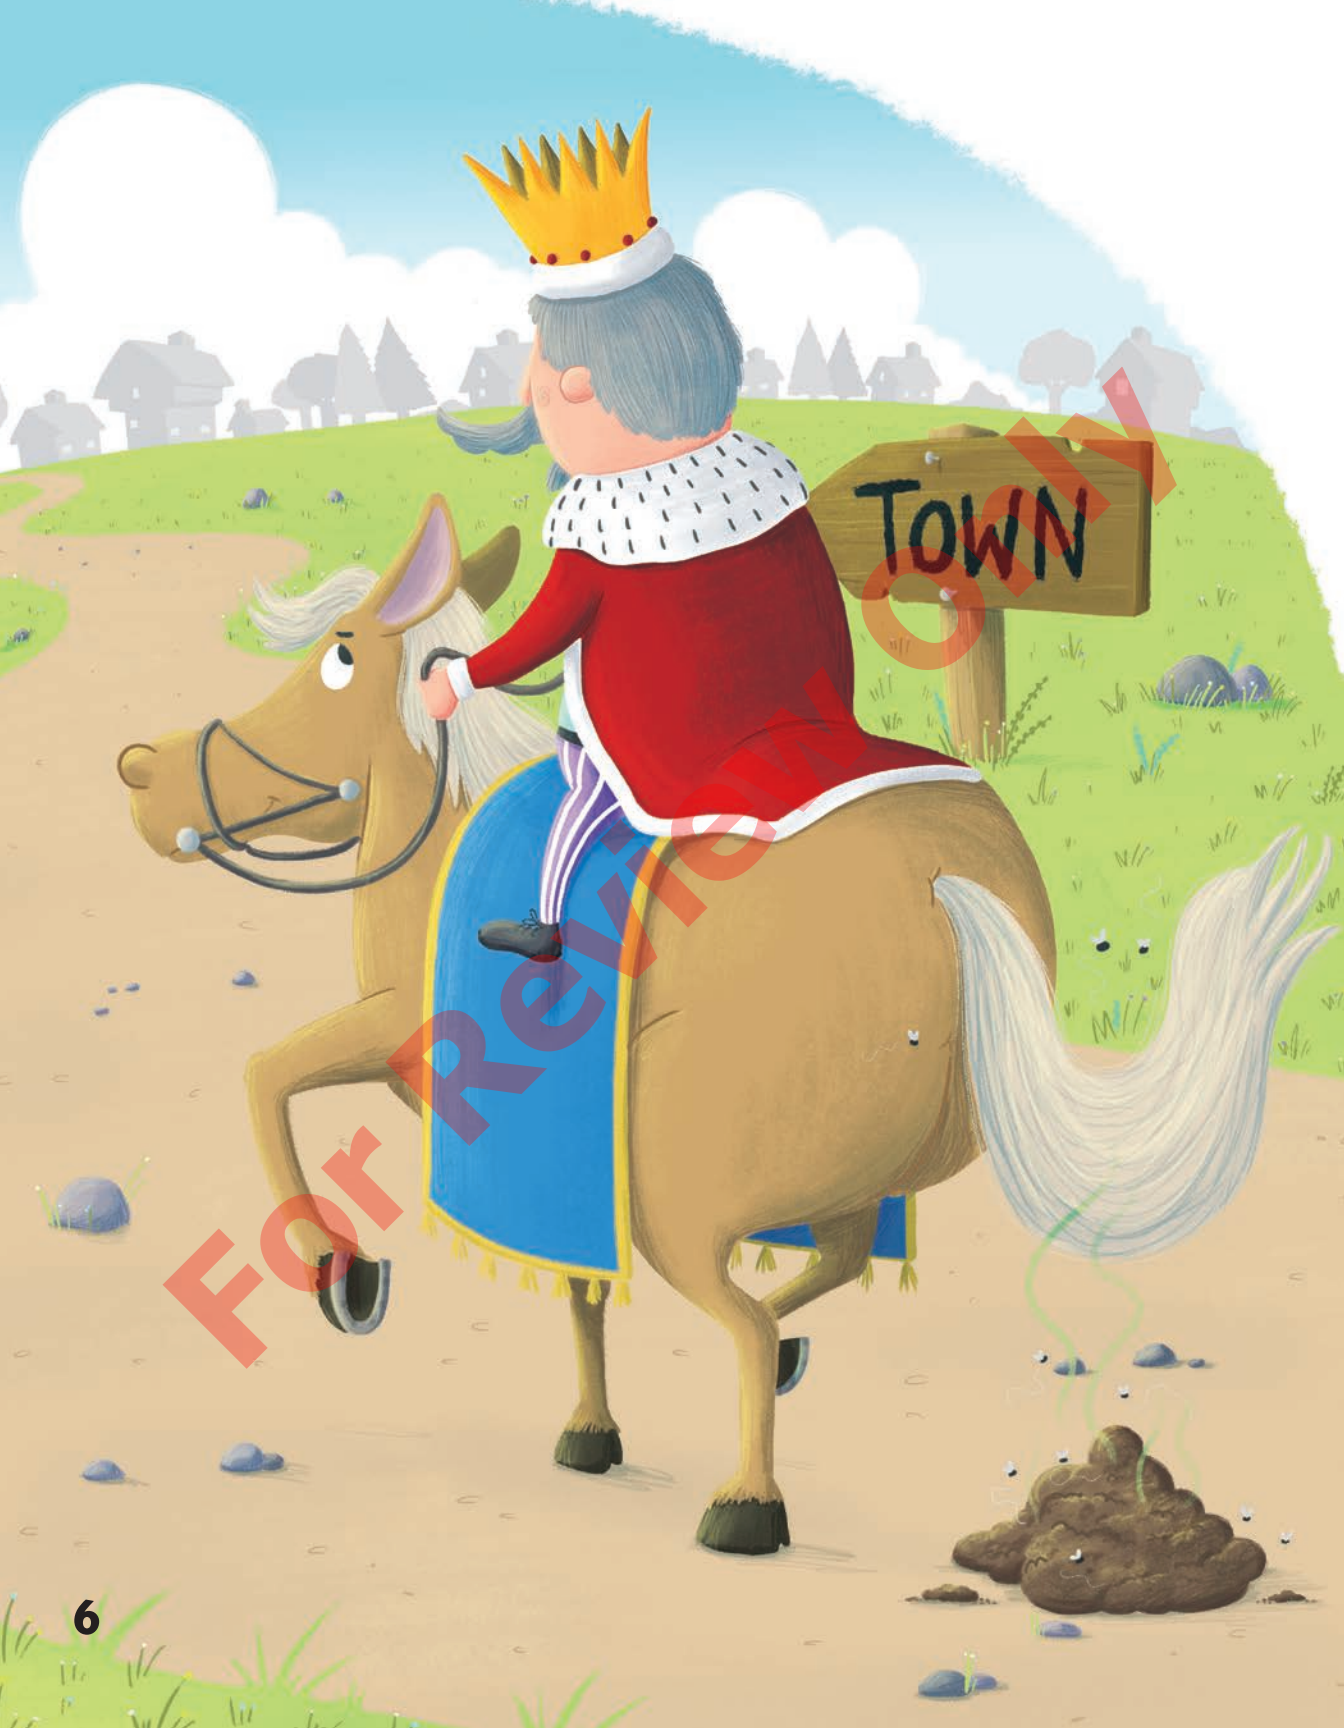

Old King Cole was a healthy old soul.

And a healthy old soul was he.

He called for his fruits and he called for his grains.

And he called for his veggies green.

King Cole invited his friends over for dinner.

Then, he went to shop for the food.

He wanted to make sure that it was all healthy.

He wanted everything to taste good.

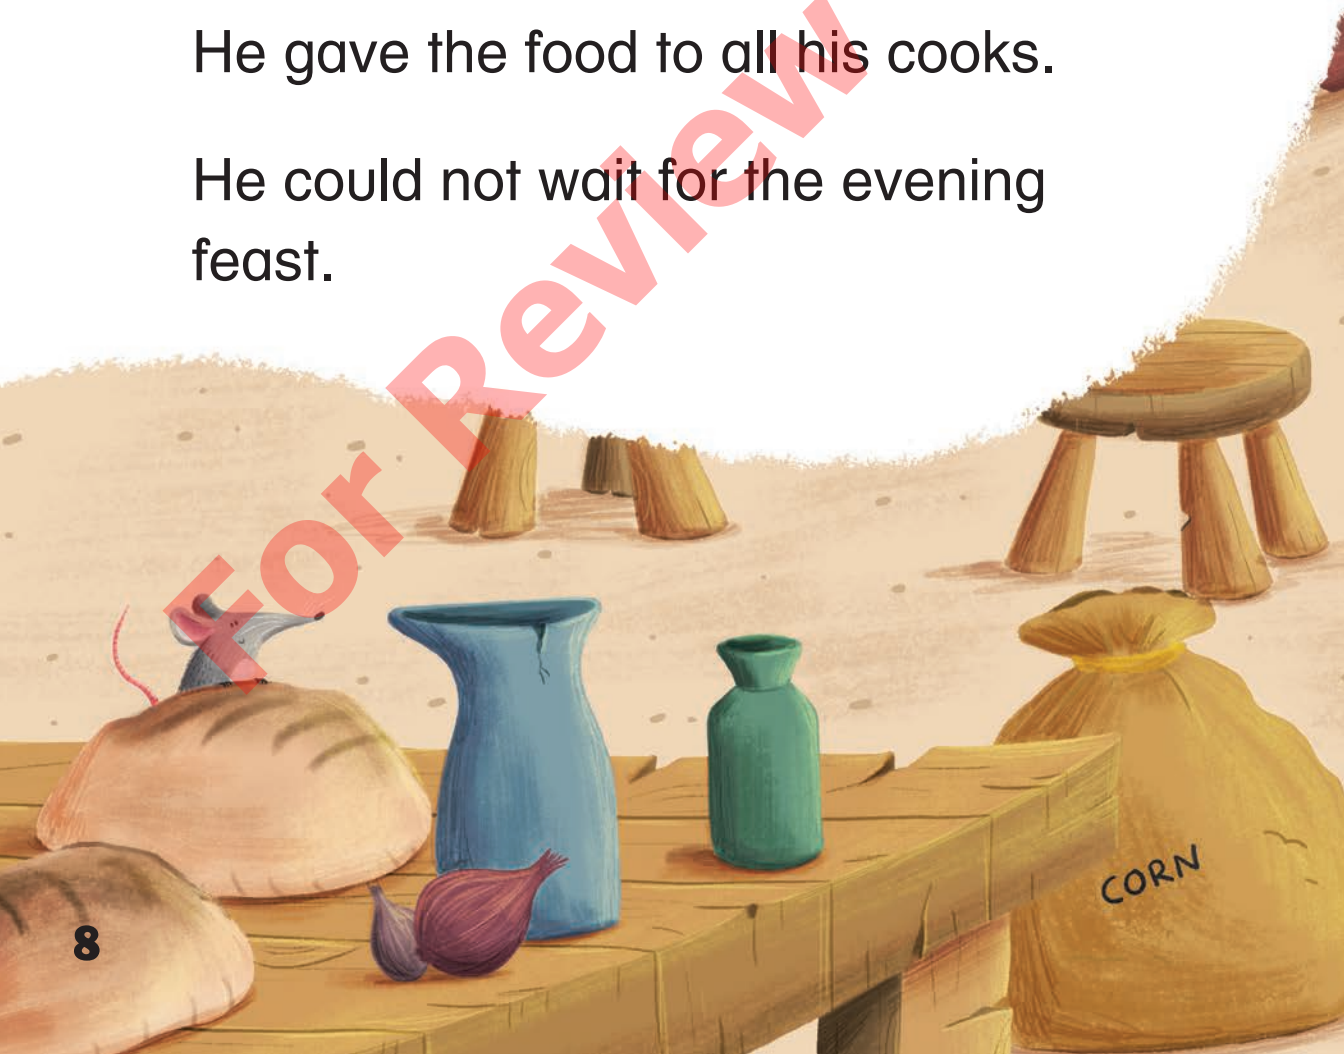

King Cole bought carrots, tofu,
and corn.

He bought chicken and bread made with yeast.

He gave the food to all his cooks.

He could not wait for the evening feast.

King Cole's Feast

King Cole is trying to eat healthy. He invites his friends to dine at his castle. Will his guests find something tasty to eat at his feast?
