iCivics

Who We Are

Joe Rhatigan

TCM Teacher Created Materials

Who We Are

For Review Only

Joe Rhatigan

What Is Culture?

Culture is how we live.
It is our music and foods.
It is our holidays and religions.
It is our languages too.

Americans share the same country.
But they have many different cultures.
That makes the country special.

For Review Only

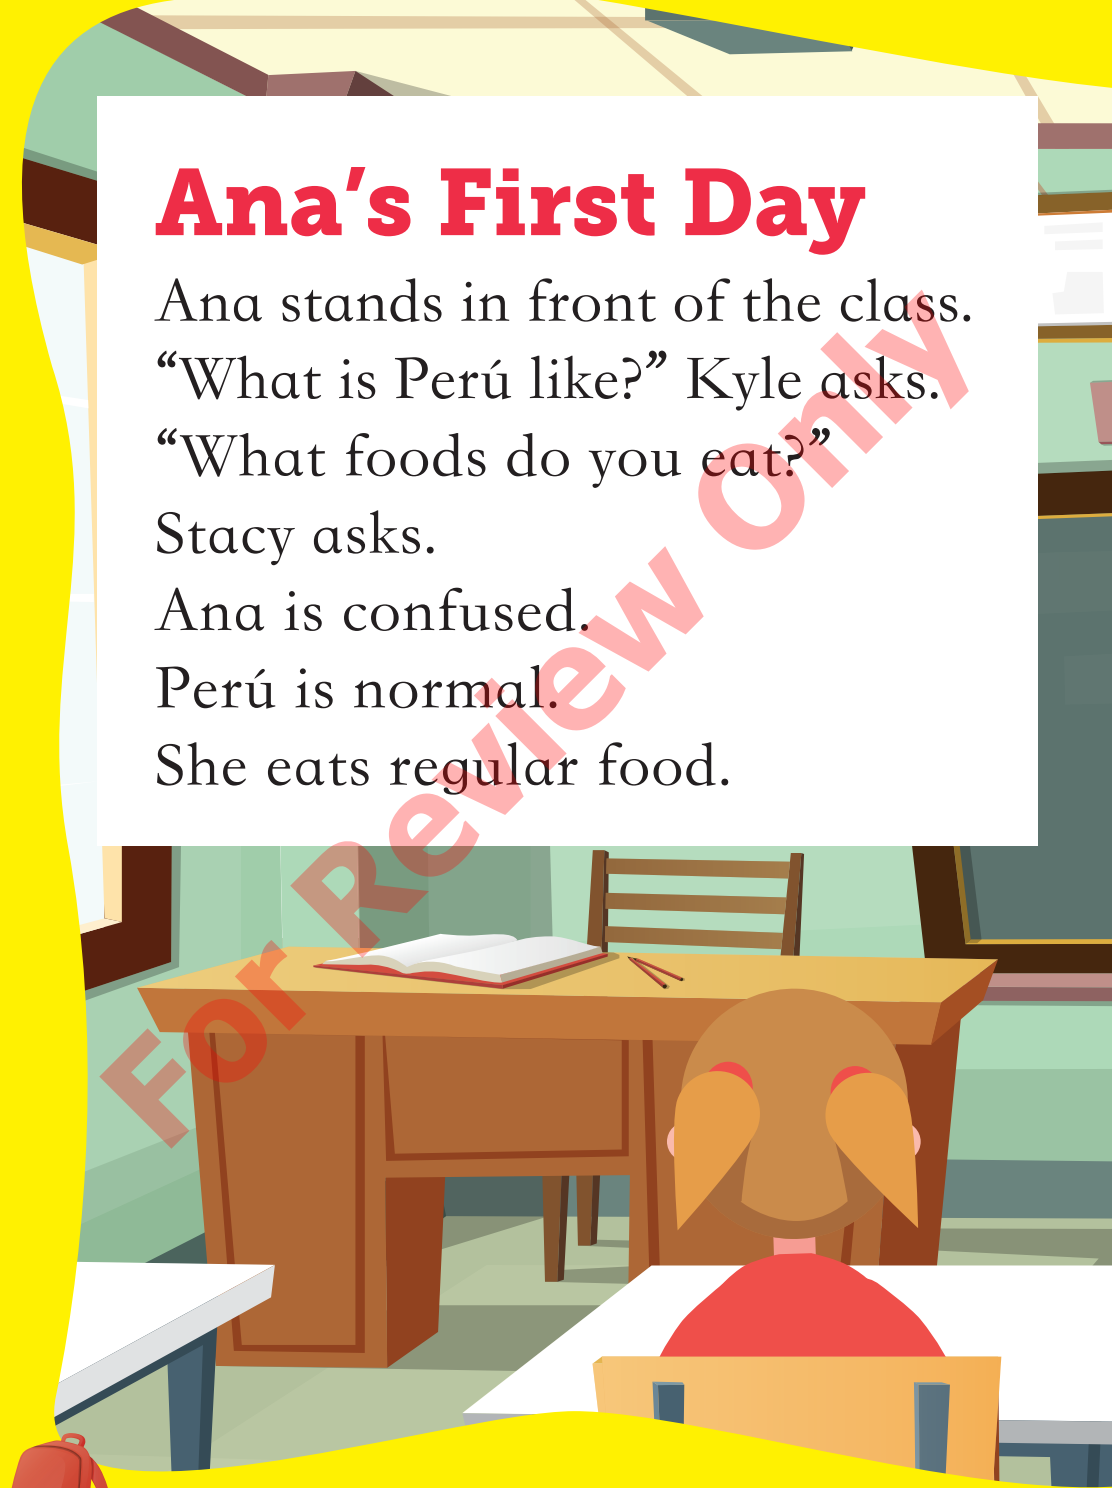

For Review Only

Jump into Fiction

Ana's First Day

Ana stands in front of the class.
"What is Perú like?" Kyle asks.
"What foods do you eat?"
Stacy asks.
Ana is confused.
Perú is normal.
She eats regular food.

For Review Only

For Review Only

At recess, Ana still feels like the other kids are looking at her oddly.
Then, Kyle says, “Let’s play tag!”

For Review Only

Ana smiles.
She loves tag!
Soon, Ana is "It."
She doesn't feel so different anymore.

For preview only

Back to Nonfiction

Who We Are

Our cultures set us apart. But cultures can also bring people together. Learning how we are special can help us love everyone!

For Review Only

121807

ISBN-13: 978-1-0876-0588-3

TCM Teacher Created Materials

Lexile®: 460L