

The Lucky Hare

by Jenny Dooley & Virginia Dooley

Express Publishing

Who is hiding
behind the tree?

Hares are usually shy. When they walk through the forest, they hide in the tall grass. But not Harry Hare! Harry Hare doesn't hide. He likes to be out in the sun.

One sunny day, he finds a big carrot.
"Oh, what a treat! I'm very lucky!
I can have this for dinner!"
He's so happy, he doesn't see who's behind the tree.

Who likes to hide
in the tall grass?

Go to activities
on page 16

ACTIVITIES

for pages 10-11

13  Listen and say.

push

hungry

growl

14  Look at the pictures and complete the words.

The boy is h _ _ _ _ .

Let's go
f _ _ _ _ .

This dog can g _ _ _ !

P _ _ _ me, Daddy!

15  Look at the picture and complete the text. Use the words in the box.

fly up pushes blows

leaves

David lets go of the rope. The fan 1) the boat. The boat 2) the ball.
The ball makes the leaves 3)

ACTIVITIES

for pages 12-13

16  Listen and say.

17  Put the pictures in order. Think and write a number.

A

When the hare jumps out, the hunter catches it.

C

One day, a hunter hides behind a rock. Then, he sees a hare in the tall grass.

B

Then, a strong wind blows the hunter's hat away.

D

The hare gets free and runs fast. What a lucky hare!

18  Who says that? Read and draw lines.

- 1 "Oh, what a treat! I'm very lucky!"
- 2 "The wind is good!"
- 3 "I must wait here until the wind stops."

The Lucky Hare

by Jenny Dooley & Virginia Dooley

Harry is a brave little hare who doesn't like to hide when he walks through the forest. So, how can he get away when a fox catches him?

Express
DigiBooks

Express Publishing

ISBN 978-1-3992-1031-7

