TALK ABOUT TEXTS

Ice Cream SOS

Written by Peter Rees
Illustrated by Cinzah Merkens

Ice Cream SOS

Written by Peter Rees

Illustrated by Cinzah Merkens

macmillan education

For Review Only

My family says I tell silly stories. They never believe me when crazy things happen!

My craziest adventure happened when we went to the beach.

"Jack, how about you get us all some ice cream," said Dad.

I jumped up from my sand castle. "You can count on me, Dad!" I replied. I grabbed the money and headed to the snack stand.

For Review Only

For Review Only

I ordered four ice creams with sprinkles, nuts and chocolate sauce.

"Hurry! It's hot today!" said the ice cream man.

"I'm fast!" I boasted.

This is when everything went wrong.
The road was crowded with runners in a race.
I tried to walk around, but I could not get through!
I had to run the race.

For Review Only

START!
CE CREAM

The ice cream was starting to soften.
I tried to hurry, but everyone was jogging slowly.

Squick! Squick! Squick!

It was so hot the road was melting!
My shoes were stuck to the street and
I couldn't lift them!

For Review Only

For Review Only