
TALK ABOUT TEXTS
My Water Adventure
Written by Jonny Webster
Illustrated by Daniel Griffo

My Water Adventure

For Review Only

Written by Jonny Webster

Illustrated by Daniel Griffo

macmillan education

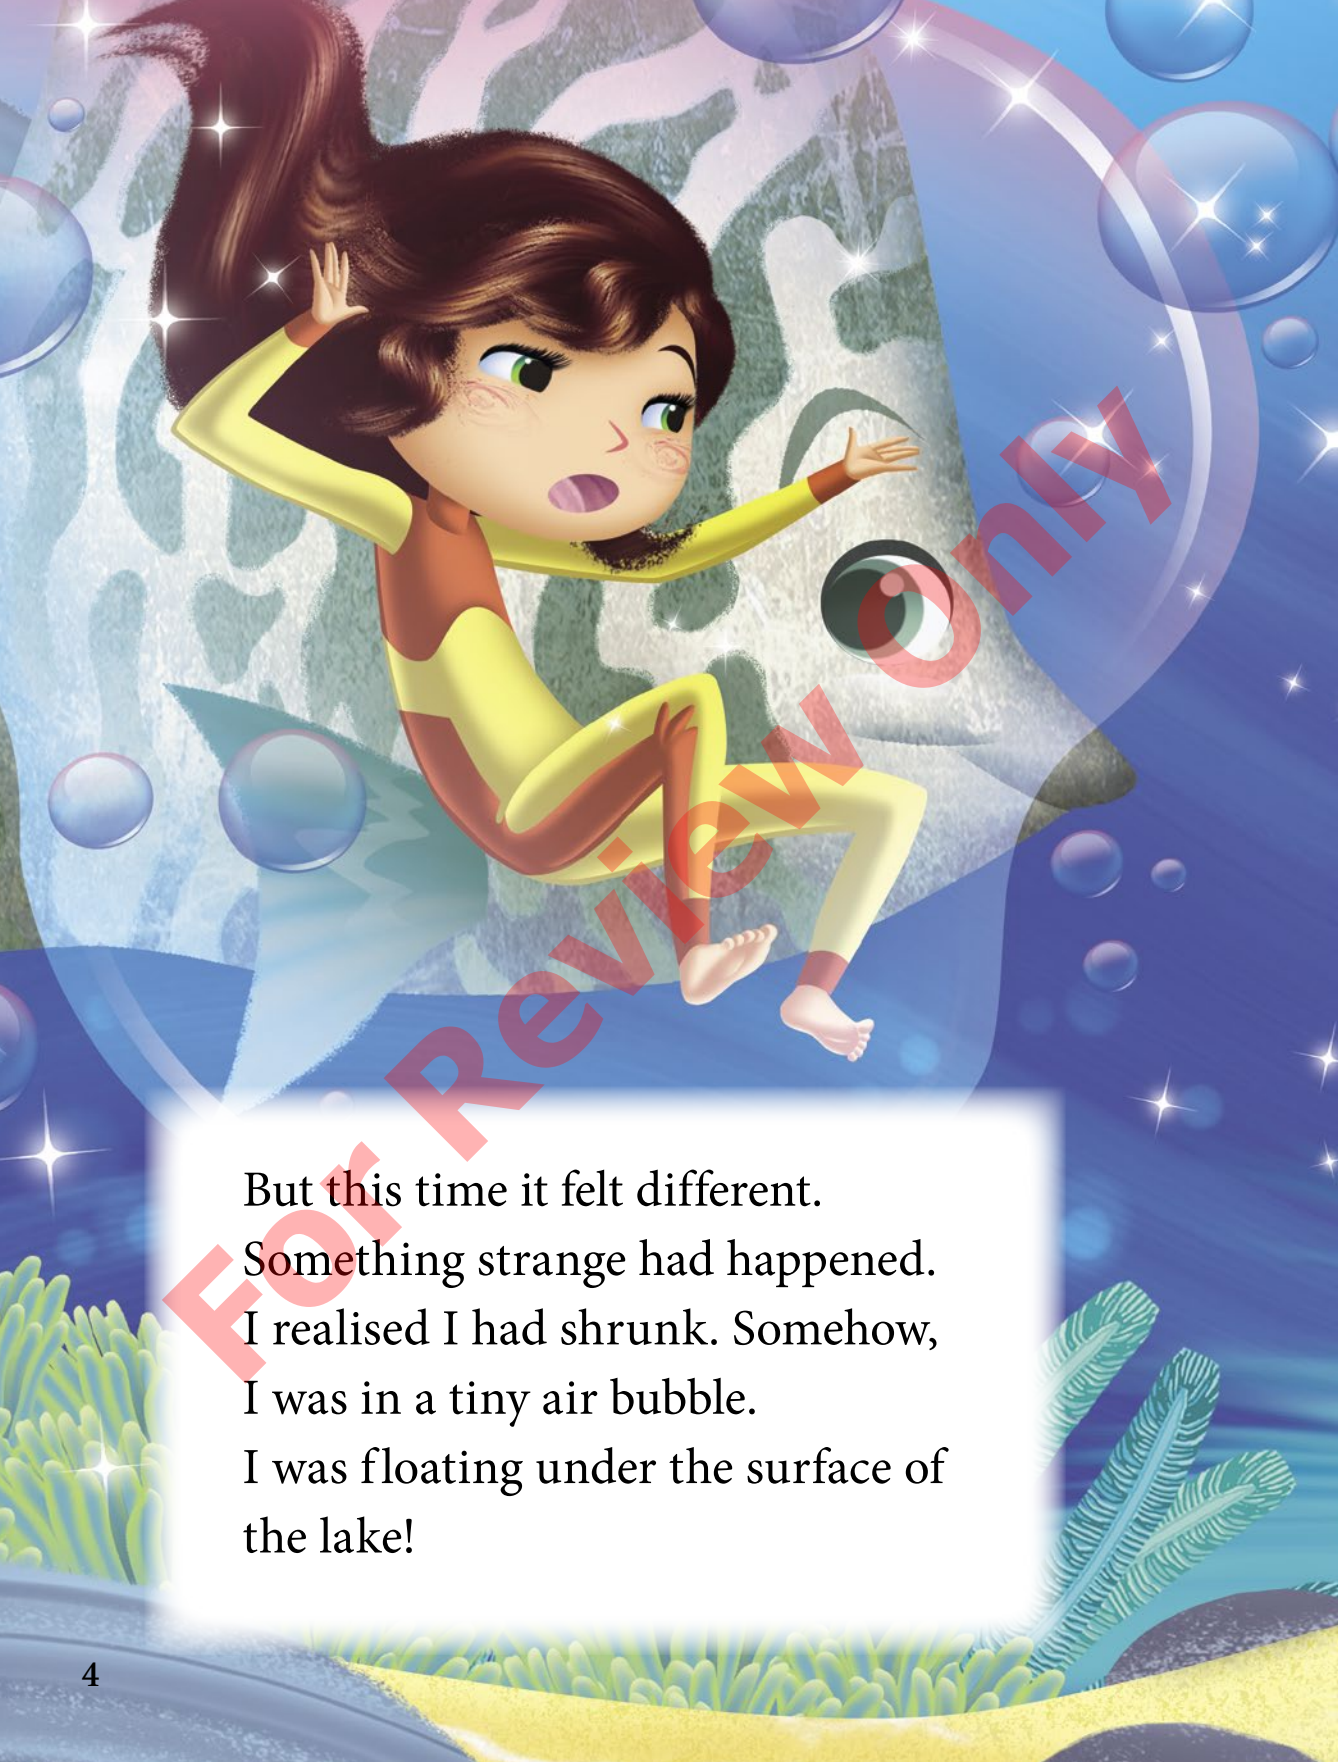

For Review Only

It was a warm evening. The sun was setting fast at the lake, as I played in the water near my family. There was time for just one more swim.

For Review Only

But this time it felt different.
Something strange had happened.
I realised I had shrunk. Somehow,
I was in a tiny air bubble.
I was floating under the surface of the lake!

For Review Only

For Review Only

My heart started to beat really fast.
I was moving underwater! I floated past some reeds. Look, a fish!
The amazing sights made me feel calm again.

The sun's rays lit up the water and giant leaves drifted by on the surface.

Suddenly, I started to float faster.

For Review Only

For Review Only

For Review Only