Chapter 1

The Time Machine

Georgia and Gabe loved visiting their Aunt Nina because she was lots of fun.

And she had a time machine!

"Let's go time travelling today," said Aunt Nina.

"Cool!" said Gabe and Georgia, jumping into the machine.

"Wait! Don't touch anything!" shouted Aunt Nina.

Too late! Gabe had pressed a button to take them 100 years into the future.

The machine whirred and whooshed and Aunt Nina was left behind.

Gabe looked outside and wondered, "Where's Aunt Nina's house?"

"We're far in the future now, so it's probably long gone," said Georgia.

"Well, let's go see what the future looks like, then," Gabe said.

As they stepped out of the time machine, a girl and a boy appeared.

"Are you lost?" asked the girl.

"I'm not sure," said Georgia. "Where are we?"

"And what year is it?" asked Gabe.

"You're in Newumbria and the year is 2120," said the girl. "I'm Hana and this is my twin brother, Jet."

Jet waved shyly.

"I'm Gabe and this is my sister, Georgia. We're new here," said Gabe.

"Let's show you around," said Hana.

"Would you like a ride in our hover buggies?" asked Jet.

"Yes, please!" said Gabe and Georgia together.
