This is papel picado.
It is made in Mexico
for special days such as weddings and birthdays.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

Many designs are used in papel picado. Birds and flowers are often used. Skeletons are, too.

You can have fun making papel picado.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

First, gather what you need. Get scissors, a pencil, string, and tape.

Get paper in many bright colors, too.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

To start, choose one sheet of colored paper. Fold the top edge.

This is called the string fold. It makes a space for the string.
