Pop! Bang! See the bright colors. Hear the music. This is a Chinese New Year parade.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

The dragon is the best part of the parade. It shakes its head and flips its tail.

You can make a dragon to celebrate, too.

First, gather your supplies. You need an egg carton and scissors.

You need paint and brushes. You also need a hole punch and some red ribbon.

Are you ready to start? Cut apart the egg carton to make small cups for the body.

Make your dragon as long as you like.
