TIME FOR KIDS

A Visit to a MARINE BASE

Marcia K. Russell

Table of Contents

A Marine Base..... 4

Marines and Their Families..... 8

Marines at Work..... 10

Working Far Away 18

Always Faithful..... 21

Glossary..... 24

For Review Only

A Marine Base

Marines live, work, shop, and go to school on the base.

For Review Only

Welcome to Camp Lejeune (Leh JOON)! It's one of the largest military bases in the country.

For Review Only

More than 157,000 people live and work at this base!

ID cards are used to identify Marines and their families. Without an ID card, you can't use base shops, child care, and health care.

For Review Only

You need an ID card to visit a base. A person checks the card at the front gate.

The commissary is a market where Marines buy food. The Post Exchange (PX) is like the malls in most towns. Marines can buy clothing there.

For Review Only

A Marine base has shops, banks, and places to eat.

Marines and Their Families

For Review Only

Some Marines live on base with their families. The base even has parks where kids can play!

For Review Only

Camp Lejeune has schools for children who live on base.