
This Is the Tower that Frank Built
Written by Sharon Callen
Illustrated by Bettina Guthridge

This is a tower,
Which reflects the light,
That stands in New York City.

For teachers' inspection ONLY

This is the tower with rippling walls,
Which reflect the light
And glow in the night,
That stands in New York City.

This is the man who drew the plans
And designed the tower with rippling walls,
Which reflect the light
And glow in the night,
That stands in New York City.

This is the school at the base of the tower,
Designed by the man who drew the plans,
To make the tower with rippling walls,
Which reflect the light
And glow in the night,
That stands in New York City.
