City Mouse and Country Mouse

retold by Katherine Scraper • illustrated by Mike Spoor

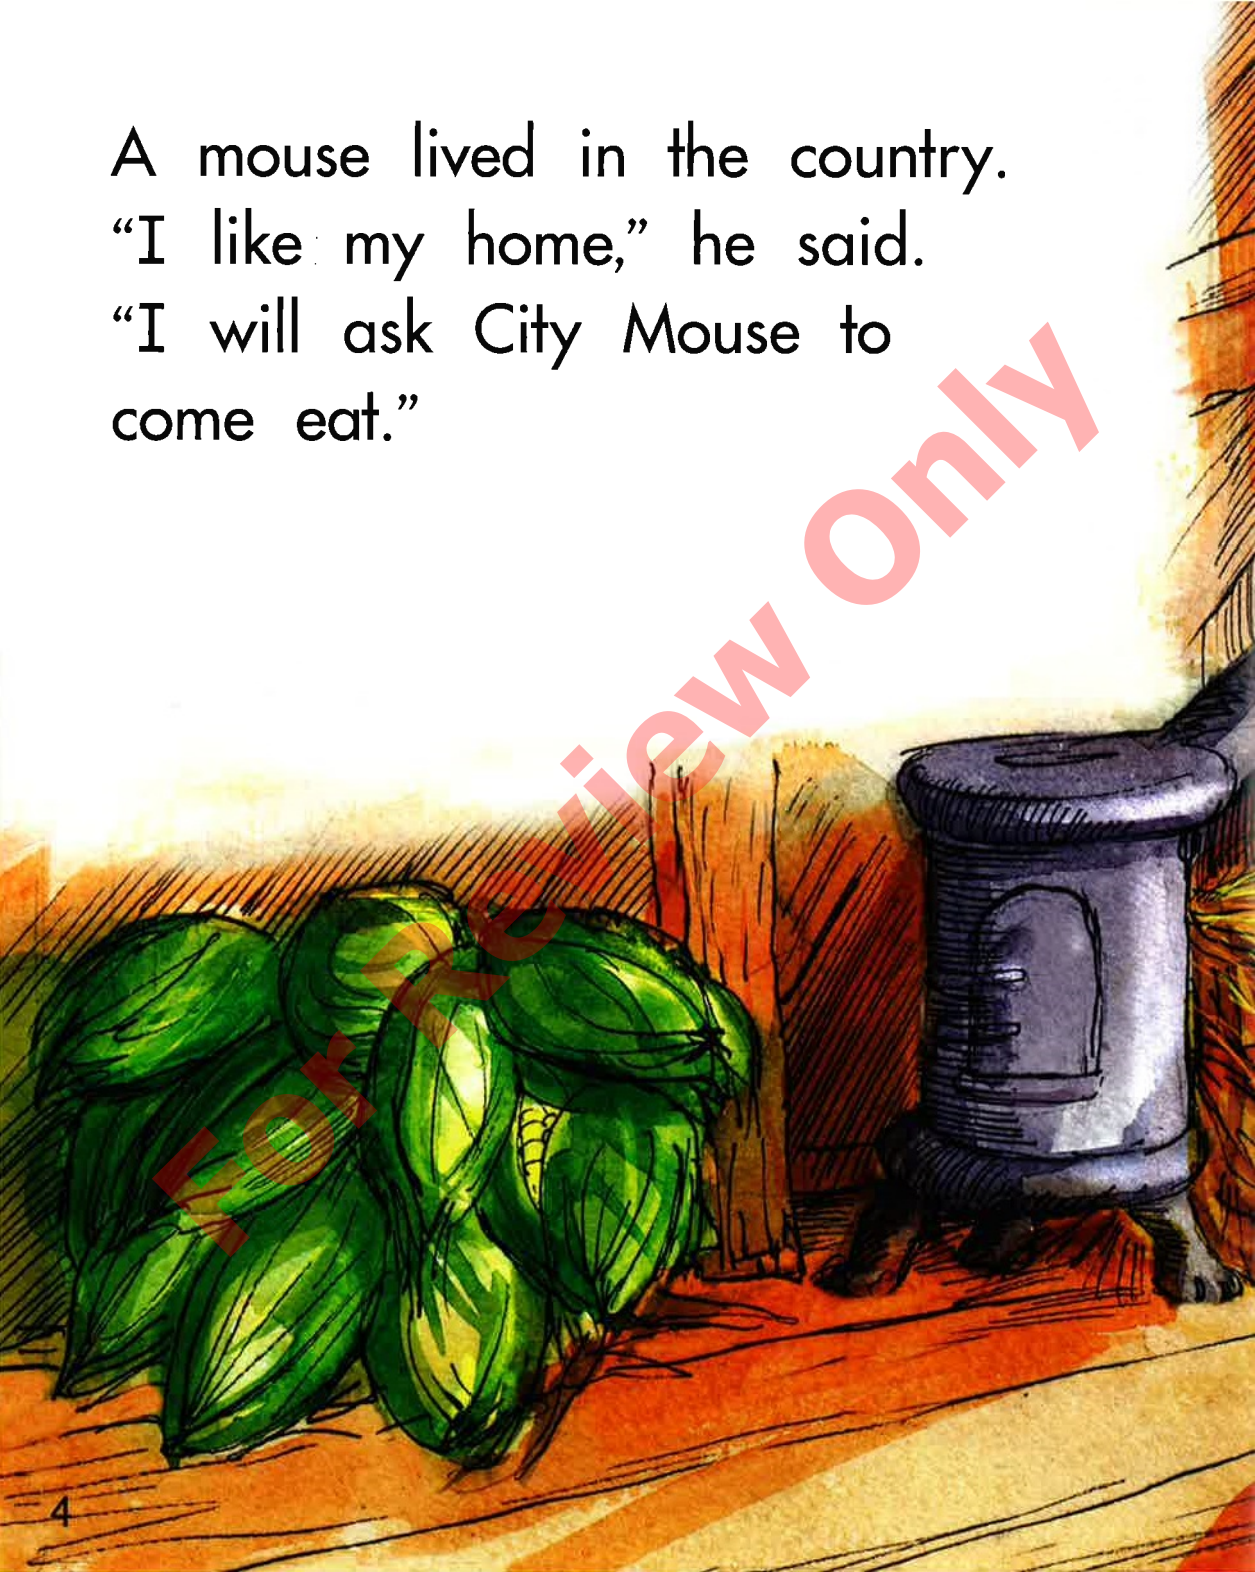

Benchmark EDUCATION

Make Connections
Which setting is most like your home? Why?

Preview only

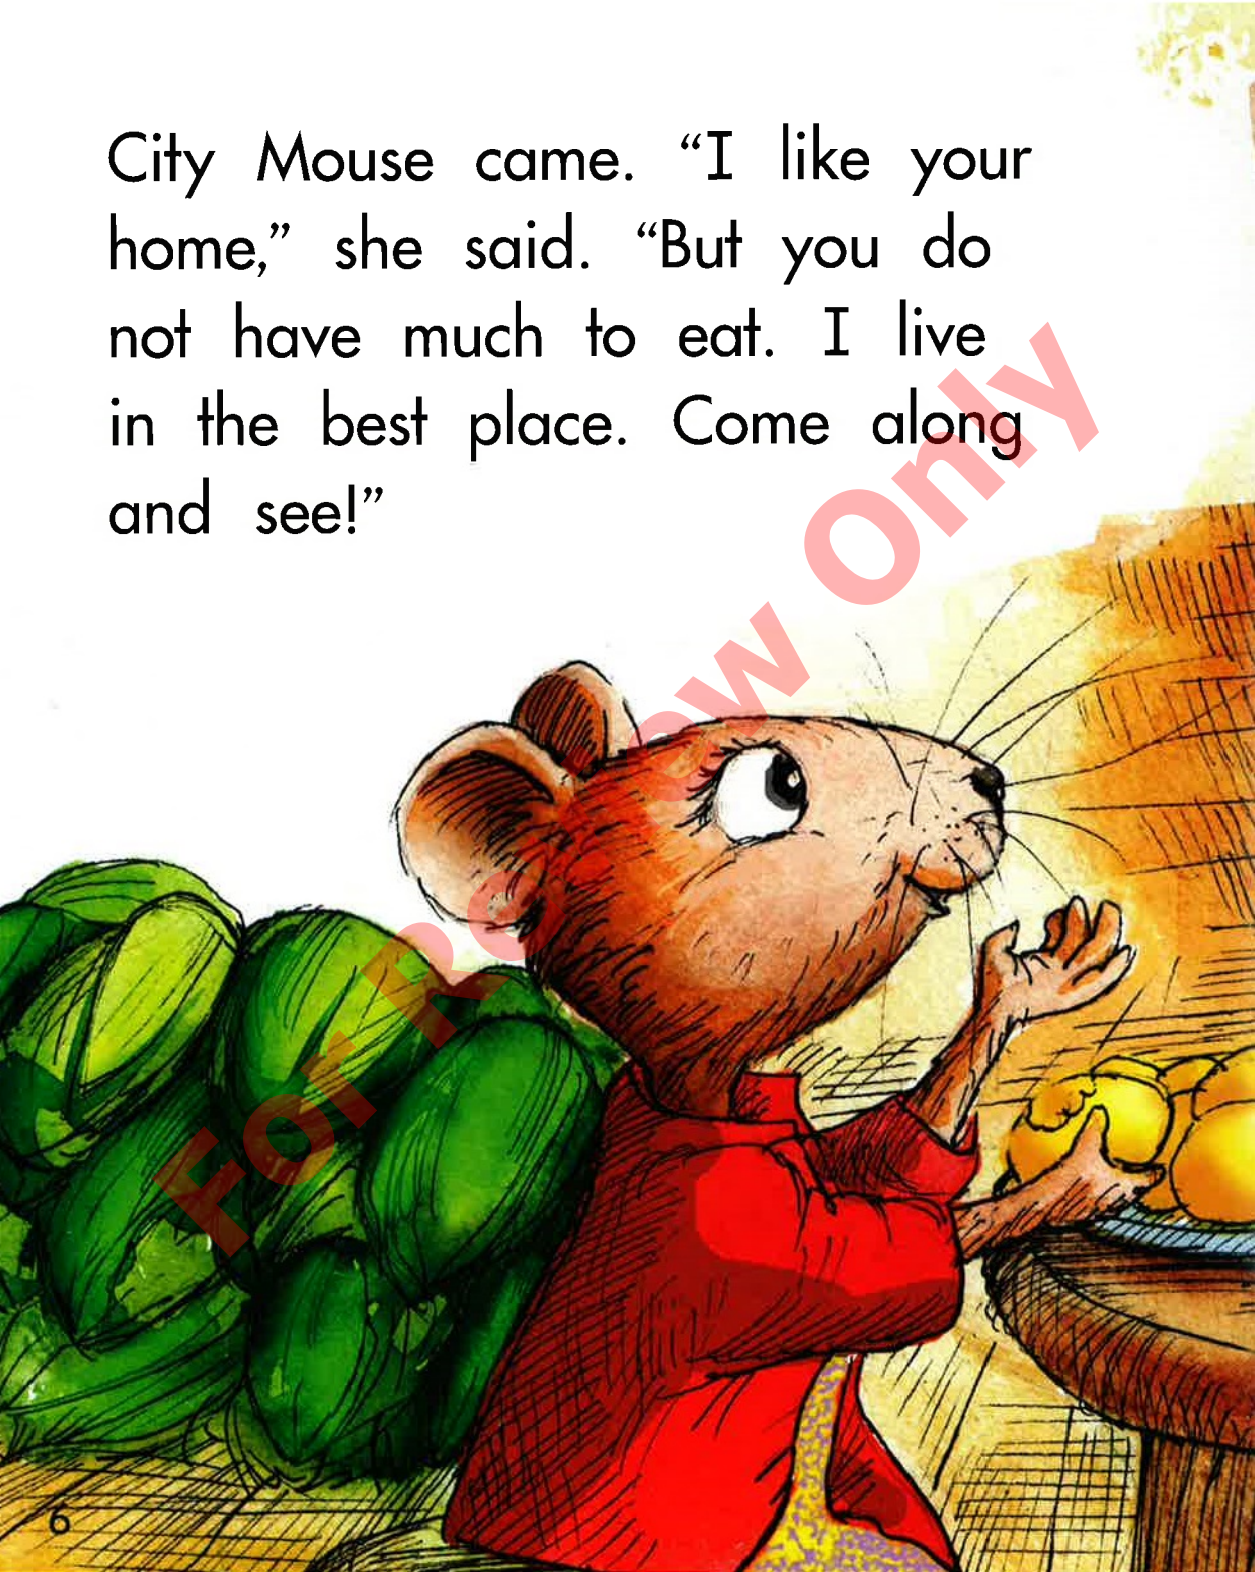

A mouse lived in the country.
"I like my home," he said.
"I will ask City Mouse to come eat."

For Review Only

City Mouse came. "I like your home," she said. "But you do not have much to eat. I live in the best place. Come along and see!"

For Review Only

Not Retail

Country Mouse went home with City Mouse. "I like your home," he said. "But what can we eat?"

City Mouse laughed. "We can eat all kinds of things!" she said.

For Preview Only

They went out a small door and saw a tall can. "Look!" said City Mouse. "What would you like to try first?"

For Review Only

What happened in this fable?

Identify Sequence of Events

Which mouse visited the other first?