

Big Day Out

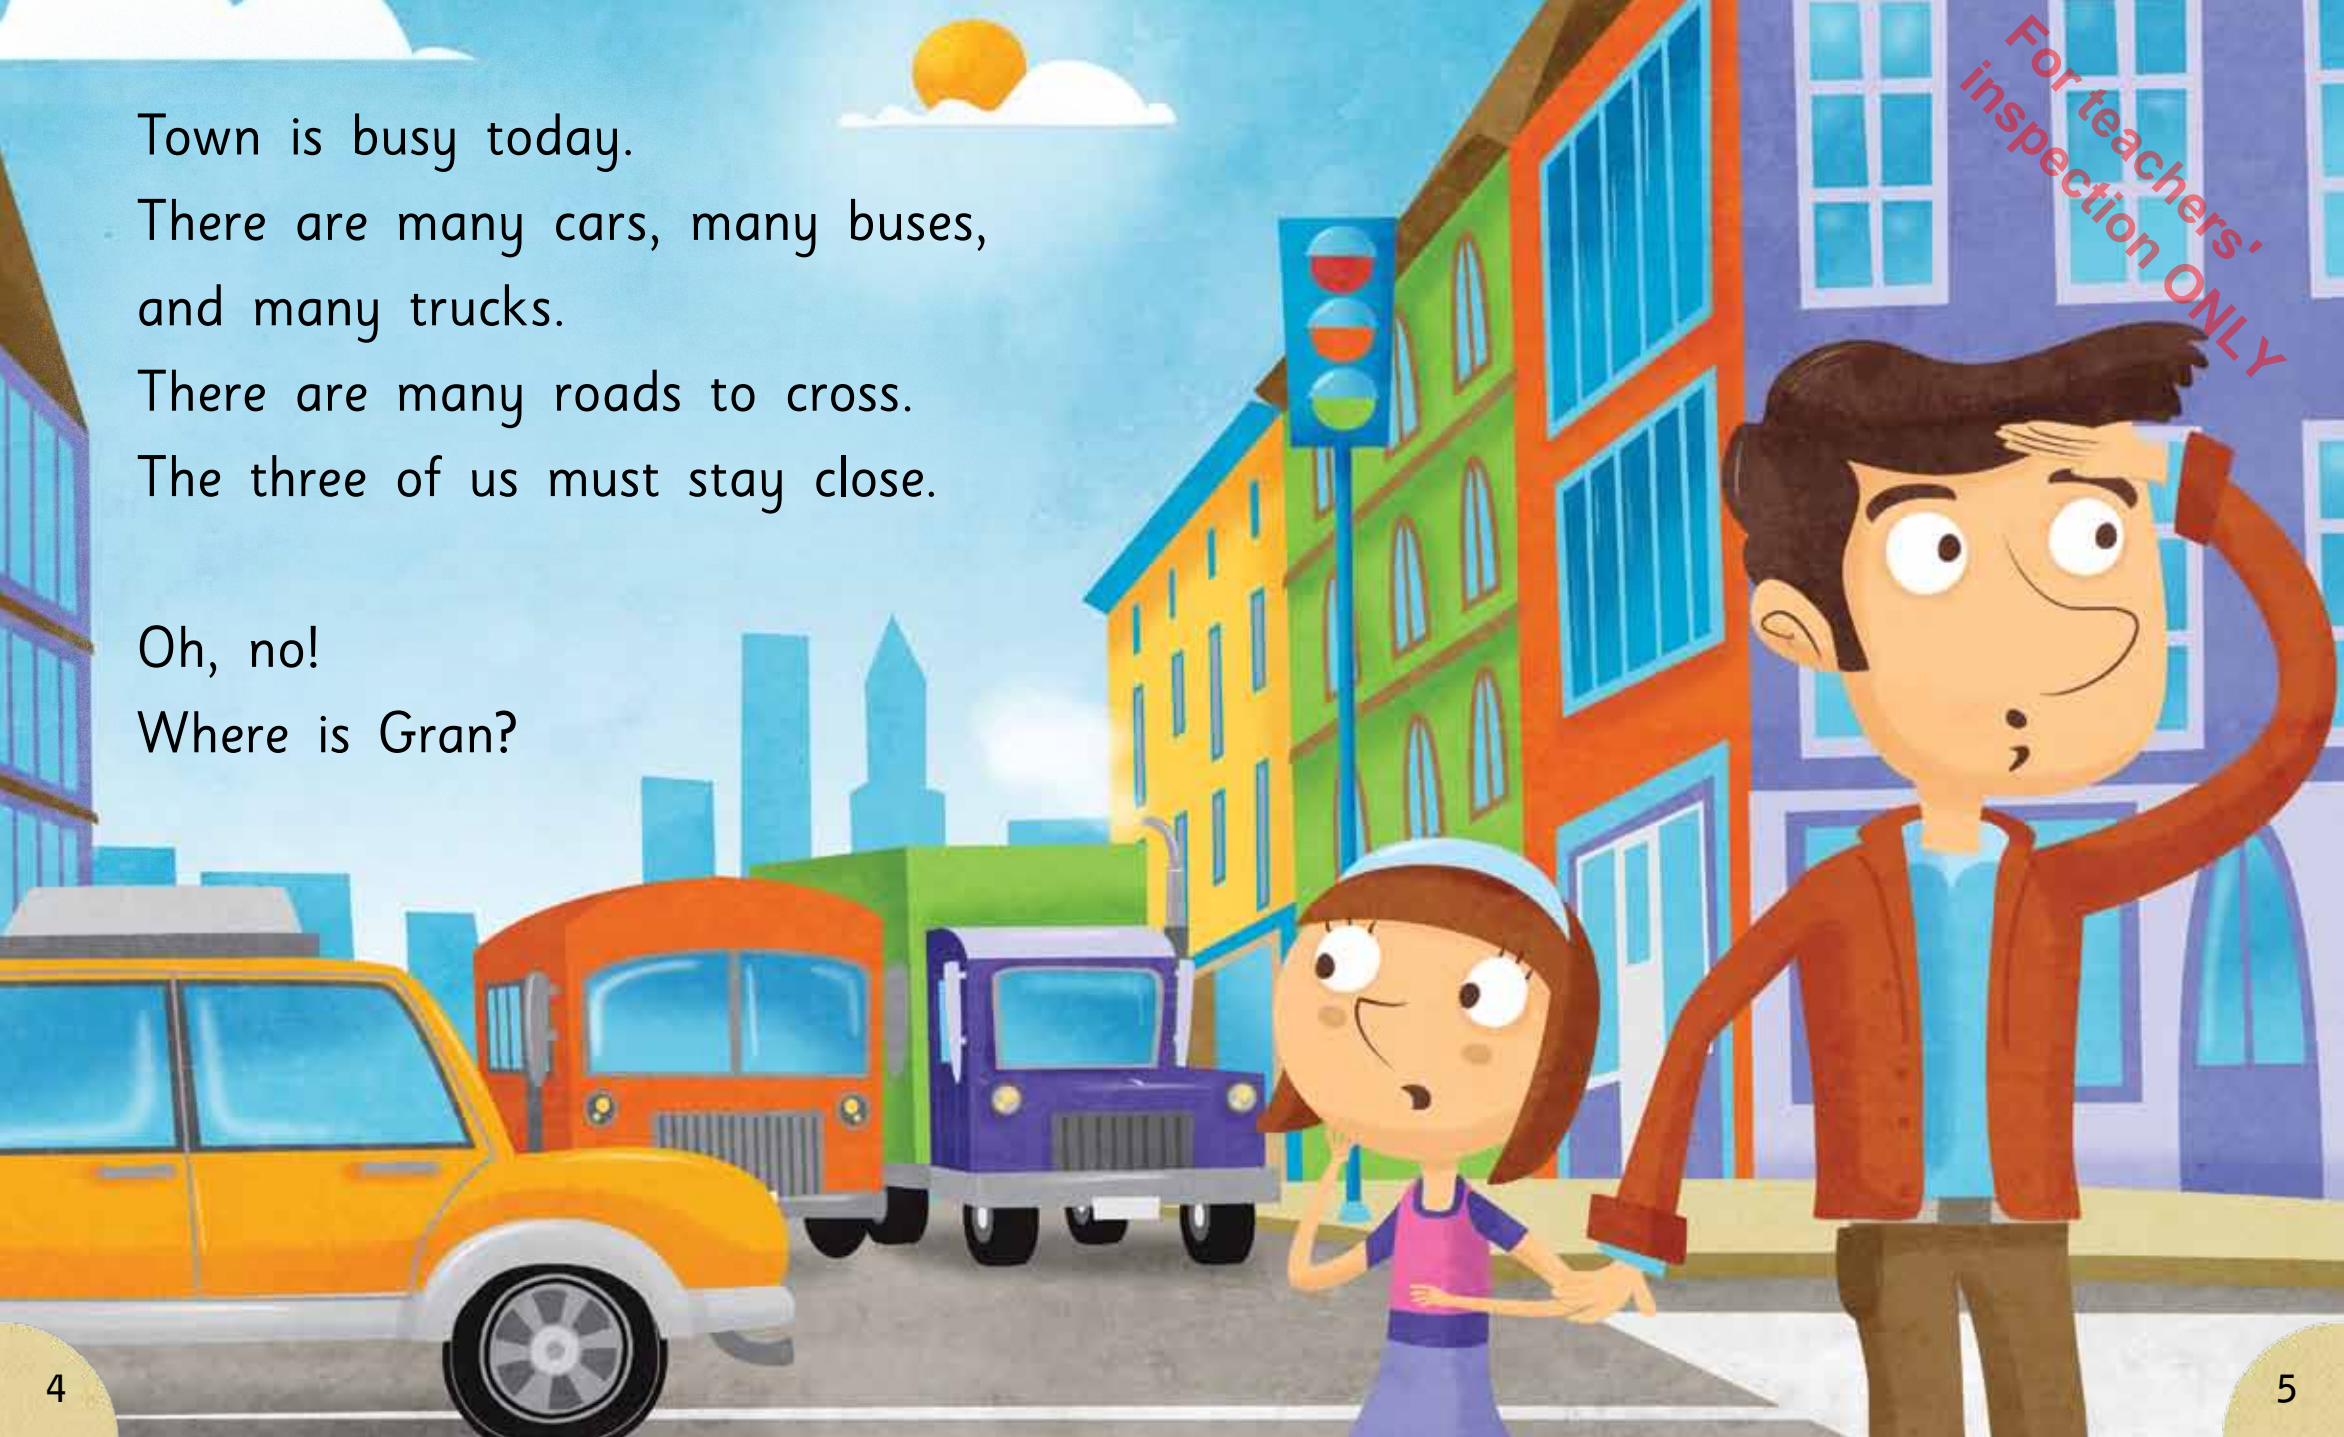

Written by Peter Rees
Illustrated by Mattia Cerato

Gran does not have many days out.
Today is her birthday.
Dad and I are giving her
a big day out in town.
We will visit many shops and cafés.
It will be just the three of us.

Town is busy today.
There are many cars, many buses,
and many trucks.
There are many roads to cross.
The three of us must stay close.

Oh, no!
Where is Gran?

Dad and I run and look for her.
We run in and out of the shops.
We run faster and faster.
There are too many places to look.

Wait, whose hat is that?
It has three flowers,
just like Gran's hat.

