I Get Along with Others

That's Not Fair!

Set Theme: I Get Along with Others

Build Social and Emotional Intelligence

Use the following tips to encourage children to be fair to others:

- Establish and reinforce polite behaviors, such as taking turns or being kind.
- Introduce children to games and activities that require them to follow simple rules. Discuss how games are not fair unless all the players follow the same rules.
- Discuss examples of fairness with children. When you see others acting in a fair way, point it out to children.

“Put on your aprons,” Mr. Nick said.
“We are going to make delicious fruit salad.”

I just love fruit salad.

My Feelings:

How do you feel when someone is not being fair?

That's Not Fair!

Sydney and her classmates are learning to make fruit salad. They must find a way to work together so they all do their fair share and get their fair share.
