Use the following tips to help children remember to use kind words:

- Discuss the reasons we use kind words when speaking to others.
- Model and role-play using kind words to ask for something or to ask for help.
- Praise children's efforts to use kind words, such as please and thank you, when speaking to adults or peers.

How to Read This Book with Children

1. Read aloud the title. Identify kind words and discuss why we use them.
2. Read aloud the book with children.
3. Talk about the characters' actions as you read.
4. Ask children to describe how Pip and the other children use kind words in the story.
5. After reading, use the Real-World Wrap-Up prompts to discuss the photograph.
6. Guide children to identify times when they use kind words like please and thank you.

My Thoughts:
What kind words can these children use as they work together?

My Feelings:

How do you feel when someone uses kind words to ask for something?
How do you feel when you use kind words to speak to others?
