There was once a forest full of tall trees and plants. The forest was very green.

The little animals of the forest were cozy, but they were sad.
They wanted to see sunlight.

“Mr. Tree, could you move over please? We want to see the sun,” said Lily the flower.

“I don’t have feet,” said Mr. Tree. “How can I move without feet?” he asked.

“We’ve been in the shade for a long time. We want to see the bright light of the sun,” said Sam the squirrel.

One day, a bright yellow flower began to grow in the forest.

The animals were surprised to see a flower in the shady forest.

“Look! A bright, yellow flower!”
said Lily.

“Hello! I’m Susie Sunflower,” said the yellow flower. “Why do you look so sad?” she asked.

The animals shared their story with Susie.
