Tommy and Sandra are going to music class. They bring their instruments. Tommy is very excited.

Today there is a special guest.
His poster is on the wall.
Willie Colón is a great musician.
He is a salsa maestro!

“Sandra, I am so happy!
I get to meet Willie Colón today,”
says Tommy.

“Who is Willie Colón?”
asks Sandra.

“Willie is a great salsa musician. His music has rhythm and is fun to dance and move to,” says Tommy.

Tommy and Sandra go into the auditorium.
Willie is already there!

“Hi, kids! My name is Willie Colón,” he says.

“Yes! You are a great salsa musician,” says Tommy.

Willie Colón is happy that Tommy knows so much about music. Tommy’s teacher is happy, too!

“I was born in New York.
My grandparents came from Puerto Rico,” says Willie.

“I play the trumpet and the trombone,” says Willie.

“I play the trumpet too!”
says Sandra.

“And I play the trombone!”
says Tommy.
