Marcos is a golden eagle. He has big, strong wings. However, his feathers are brown, not golden.

Marcos lives in Mexico.
He likes to fly over buildings made long ago.

Marcos is the most famous bird in all of Mexico. There is an eagle just like him on the Mexican flag.

Marcos knows his country well. He flies to the top of many buildings.

One day, Marcos sees another big bird. This bird looks different. The feathers on its head are white. The feathers on its body are dark brown.

“Hello! My name is Marcos.
I am a golden eagle.
Who are you?” he asks.

“My name is Tina,” says the other bird. “I am a bald eagle from the United States.”

“I have never flown to the United States,” says Marcos.

“Come with me!” says Tina.

Marcos and Tina
fly to the United States.
