It's Take Your Kids to Work Day. Amy is going to the car factory with her mom.

“Time to go,” said Amy’s mom.
“We can’t be late!”

When they arrive, Amy looks at her mom's desk.
Amy starts to write in her notebook.

“How does the computer help you do your job?”

Amy asks.

“I use my computer to design new cars,” answers her mom.

“Some workers use computers to order parts,” says her mom.

“Computers are used a lot here,” says Amy.

“Other workers use computers and machines to put the car parts together,” says her mom.

Amy and her mom walk around the factory.

Amy sees many people and machines.
