Ana has a little brother. His name is Alexander. Ana likes being the big sister and taking care of her little brother.

One day, Ana said, "Let's go for a walk, Alexander!"

Before leaving, Ana put on Alexander's coat. She also put on his scarf, his gloves, and his hat. It was very cold outside.

They walked to the park.
Alexander ran to the slide.

When he got to the top,
he felt something land
on his head. It was a snowflake.

Then he felt another. This one landed on his hand. He tasted it and it tasted like ice cream.

Alexander looked up at the sky.
More ice cream was falling!

Alexander got down from the slide and ran to Ana.
