Don't Be Bored, Dinosaurs!

By Elizabeth Dale

Flicky yawned. It was a sleepy Monday afternoon at Dino School. Even worse, they were learning History. Boring! Who wanted to know about the first dinosaurs roaming the world? Yawn!

“Flicky!” cried Mr Megasaurus.

“Stop yawning! I do not want to see all the way down your long neck!”

“Sorry,” she said. “I can’t help it.”

“History is boring,” said Terry, yawning an even bigger yawn.

“We agree!” cried the other dinosaurs.

“Can’t we study the future instead?”

asked Flicky.

Mr Megasaurus smiled. “Well, I shouldn’t really...” he said, “but I could take you forward to the 21st century.”

Everyone suddenly sat up.

“Very well,” said Mr Megasaurus.

“Come together. Hold on to each other.

Close your eyes.”

Class D had never moved so fast.

Then, suddenly...

WHOOSH!

Flicky blinked. She couldn't believe her eyes.
They'd arrived in the future! The animals here were so tiny.

“Hurry! Hide!” Mr Megasaurus whispered.

“Nobody must know you're here!”

Everyone quickly hid.

This was hard as they were all so big!
