Biscuit Blast Off!

By Clare Helen Welsh

Illustrated by Sophia Touliatou

Oliver was a good boy.

Oliver was a kind boy.

Oliver shouldn't have been sneaking into the kitchen
for a midnight snack but he was hungry.

He crept down, down, down the dark, dark stairs.

He reached up, up, up onto the top, top shelf...

But the biscuit tin was empty!

“Oh no! Where are all the cookies?” said Oliver.

“Where are the flapjacks?”

Just then, Oliver heard a sound in the dark kitchen.

Was it a giant? Or perhaps a burglar? Or even a troll? Or mice?
