The Underwear Wolf

By Clare Helen Welsh

Illustrated by Letizia Rizzo

Chapter 1

Right from the beginning Stitch knew he was different. He had two eyes like the other children. He had a nose and hair on his head like the other children, too.

But Stitch had a secret. When the full moon shone in the night sky, his feet became furry. Hairs sprouted all over his hands. His voice grew deep and growly. Because Stitch... was a werewolf.

On a full moon, Stitch wasn't tucked up in bed reading a story like the other children. He was outside, exploring!

On a full moon, Stitch wasn't sound asleep dreaming of bouncy castles and fluffy rabbit tails. He was racing through the forest chasing beetles and fireflies!

Even in the day light, Stitch stood out. He tried going to school once...

...but he didn't really fit in.

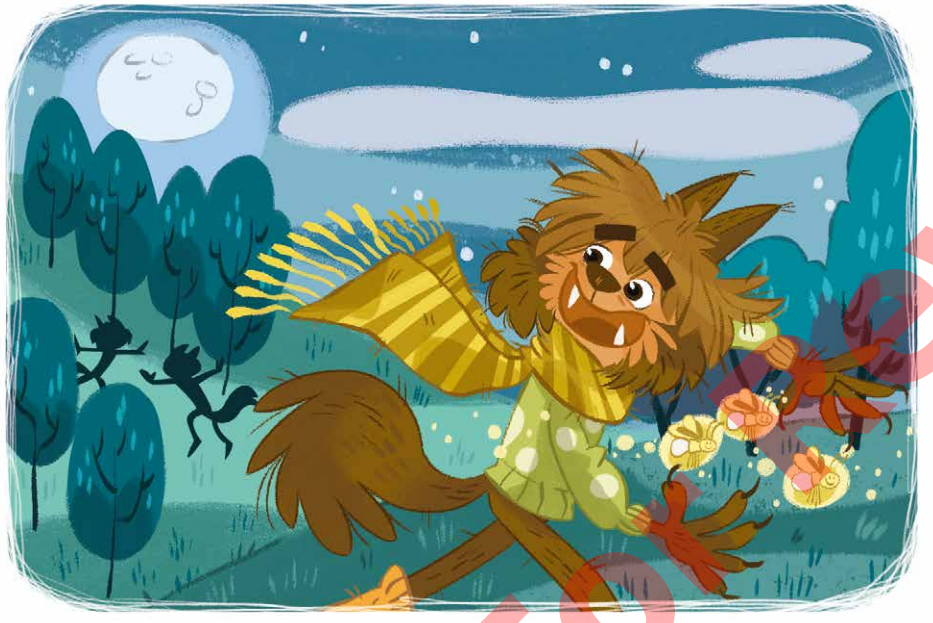

So Stitch spent his days all by himself. He loved knitting and stitching. He designed the most marvellous scarves. He darned the most fabulous socks. He knitted the most spectacular jumpers.

But there's only so many knitted scarves and jumpers one werewolf can wear. Stitch often dreamed of a friend to race and chase and knit for. And then one moonlit night...

"Awroooooooooo!"

...he heard one!

Chapter 2

Stitch couldn't believe his luck! He raced through the forest as fast as his furry legs could carry him.

It wasn't long before he found exactly what he was looking for. But Stitch didn't just find one werewolf...

...he found a whole pack!
