The Tractor Factor

By Amanda Brandon
Illustrated by Maarten Lenoir

Scotty Sheepdog was polishing his red tractor. He watched the animals getting ready for the talent show.

There were dancing ducks, singing sheep and acrobatic cats.

Scotty loved his tractor.

“My tractor should be in the talent show,”

he said.

“A tractor is too noisy. It can’t sing like me,” said Miss Baa Baa.

“But...” said Scotty.

“A tractor is too clumsy. It can’t juggle like us,” said the hens. “We have the Eggs Factor.”

“My tractor has big buttons and bouncy wheels. When I turn on the engine, it ROARS. There must be something it can do in the show,” said Scotty.

But no one heard him. They were too busy.
