Delivery Dave

By Jenny Jinks

Illustrated by Jenny Palmer

Dave was a slow sloth. All sloths are slow, but not as slow as Dave. Being so slow would be a problem for anyone. But it was a BIG problem for Dave, because he was the jungle postman.

Dave was always late. Once, he had delivered the invitations to his own party. But by the time he had finished, the party was over. Dave had missed his own birthday party! In fact, he had never been to a birthday party at all.

“Where is my package?” Ellie asked, checking her watch. “It should really be here by now.” But her parcel wasn't just late by a few minutes. Or even a few hours. It was two whole days late.

“I'm here,” said Dave, crawling slowly towards her. “And here's your parcel.” “Finally!” said Ellie. “Thank you.”

But when Ellie opened the package, it wasn't the one she had been expecting.

"I ordered this so long ago I had forgotten all about it!" she said.

"Sorry," said Dave sadly.

But Ellie wasn't angry. It was a nice surprise, even if it was late.
