

A Name for Peace

Leila L. Edmunds • Elena Iarussi

Hi, I'm Airini. I'm starting at a new school.
It's exciting! How do you feel about new schools?

Vocabulary

winter feel excited

everyone wrong

nervous

cry

why different remember peace

mistake

Warm-Up Activity

Look and check.

Look at the pictures. Check the box with the right feeling.

☐

happy

☐

mad

☐

sad

☐

tired

☐

excited

☐

angry

☐

cold

☐

hungry

☐

nervous

This is New Zealand in winter.

It is June. The weather is cold.

This is Airini. She is Māori.
They are native to New Zealand.

Airini is going to a new school.

“How do you feel?”

Mom asks.

“I feel excited,” Airini says.
Airini’s family takes her to school.

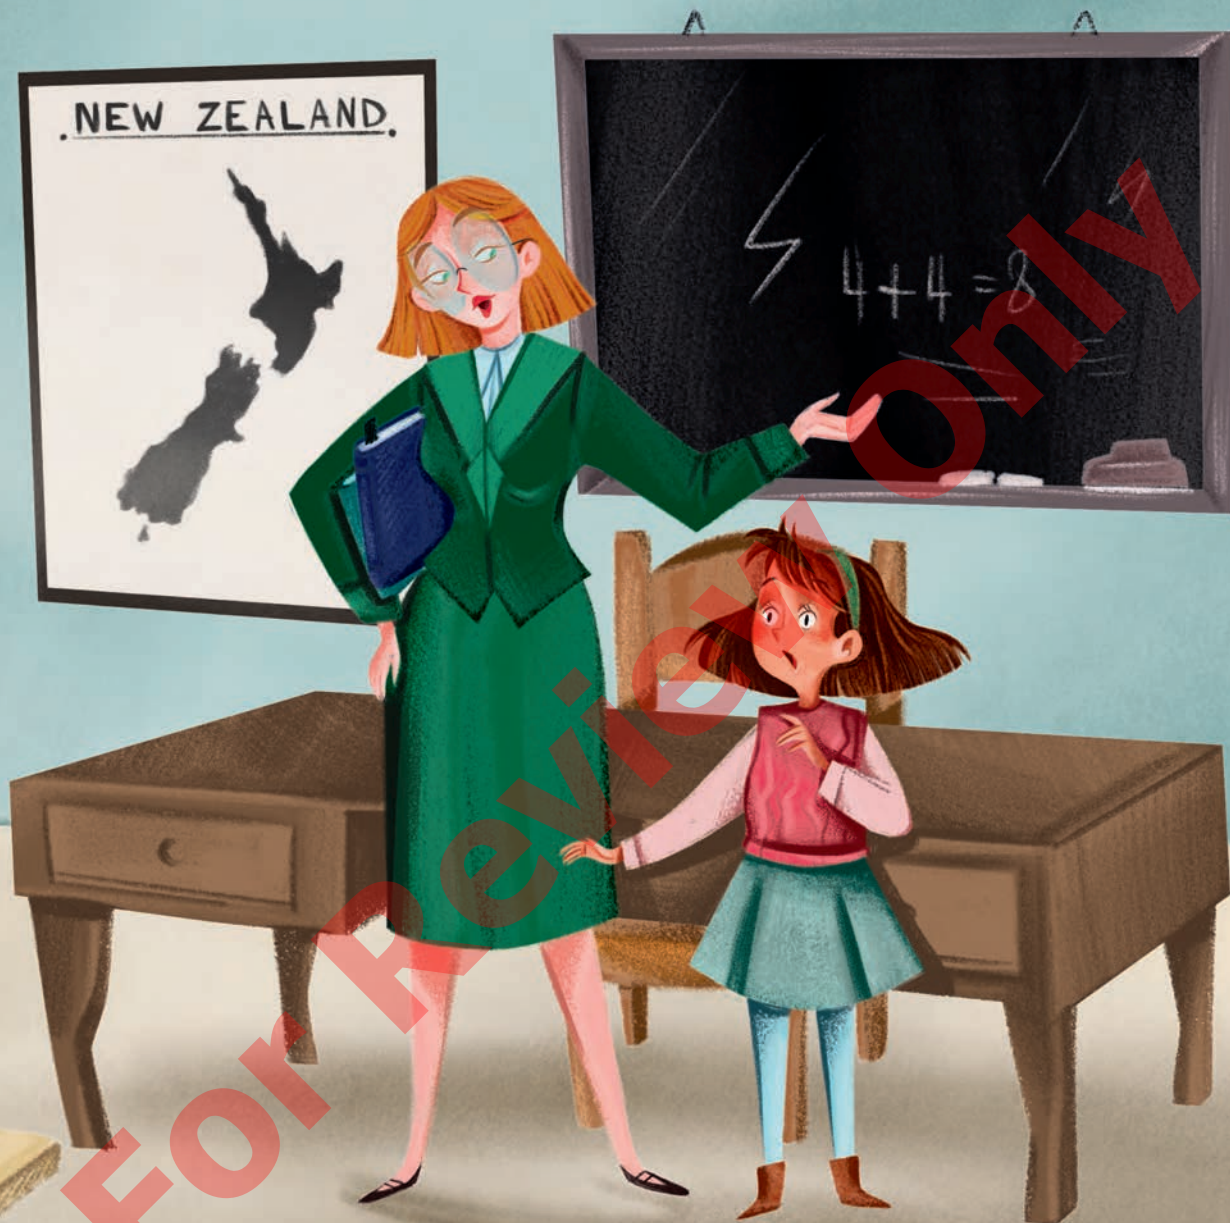

The teacher tells the children about Airini.

“This is Ahreenee,” says the teacher.

“Say hello to her.”

“Hello Ahreenee,” says the class.

After-Reading Activities

A. Listen to the paragraph. Then, read the questions and check the correct answers.

1. What is New Zealand famous for?

2. Who were the first people to live in New Zealand?

the Māori

Asians

white people

3. Which marks the start of the Māori New Year?

Christmas

Easter

Matariki

4. What do families and friends do during the Māori New Year?

They go to school.

They come together to celebrate.

They go to work.