

Welcome to My House

Level
1

John D. Smith

Hello! I'm Emma, and I'm from England.

Come on, I want you to meet my family!

Here's my mom.
Mom likes to bake.

It looks fun!

SPEAK

Where are Emma and her mom?

 Here's my dad.

Dad likes to fix things.
It looks cool!

LOOK

What is Emma's
dad doing?

Here's my sister, Jen.
Jen likes to smell flowers.

COUNT

How many flowers
can you see?

They smell nice.

More than Pretty

Flowers don't just look pretty and smell great. Indigo, for example, can heal burns and insect bites. People even use it as a natural dye to color their clothes.

1. Listen and think. Then, write down who they are.

1

I like flowers. I smell the flowers every day. It makes me happy.

Mom

2

I can fix bikes for my kids. Look! They are riding their bikes.

Jen

3

I like to watch TV. It's so fun. I can watch TV all day.

Dad

4

I bake for my family. They love to eat my food.

Eco-Friendly Doll House

You will need:

a large cardboard box

paint

glue

recyclable trash

scissors

1. Use whatever you can find around the house to make a doll house. The cardboard box can be the house.
