CAPSTONE EARLY READERS

The Three Little Pigs

adapted by C.C. Oven

illustrated by Alice Caldarella

Once upon a time, there were three little pigs.

For Review Only

The first little pig built a house of straw.

For Review Only

The second little pig built a house of sticks.

For Review Only

The third little pig built a house of brick.

For Review Only

But the Big Bad Wolf was watching. First, he went to the straw house.

“Little pig! Little pig! Let me in!” he yelled.

For Review Only

“Not by the hair on my chinny chin chin!” the first pig said.

For Review Only

“Then I will huff and puff and blow your house down!”
the wolf said.

For Review Only

For Review Only

A New Name

Opposites are pairs of words that have completely different meanings, like hot and cold. The three little pigs want to use opposites to change the wolf's name.

Look at the names on the left side. Can you match each name to its opposite on the right side?

For Review Only

The BIG BAD Wolf

The FAST HEAVY Wolf

The HOT LOUD Wolf

The TALL YOUNG Wolf

The WEAK SAD Wolf

The SLOW LIGHT Wolf

The SHORT OLD Wolf

The STRONG HAPPY Wolf

The SMALL GOOD Wolf

The COLD QUIET Wolf

Talk About It

1. How do you think the pigs felt when the wolf showed up? Did they all feel the same?
2. What other materials could the pigs use to build a house?
3. How would you change the ending of the story?

For Review Only