DONNIE'S ROBOT

CHAPTER ONE
A new idea

'Donnie! Watch out!' shouted Leo.

There was one last Kraangdroid, and it was in front of Donnie.

'Aaaarr!' Donnie shouted. He hit the Kraangdroid with his bo staff. The Kraangdroid looked at him.

'I've got it!' Raph shouted. He ran at the Kraangdroid and it fell down. The Kraang alien jumped out and ran away.

Donnie looked at his bo staff.

'This thing is not cool,' he said. 'How can I fight the Kraang with an old bo staff?'

Then he looked at the Kraangdroid. 'I've got an idea,' he said.

'What are you doing, Donnie?' said Raph.
Donnie had one of the Kraangdroids. 'What's inside this thing?' he asked.

'There's a pink Kraang inside,' said Raph. 'You hit it and it jumps out!'

'I want to find out more,' said Donnie. 'Let's take it back home.'

The Turtles went back home. Donnie worked on the Kraangdroid. Splinter came to see.

'Sensei,' said Donnie. 'This robot is awesome! Please can I make something new from it?'

'Yes, of course,' said Splinter. 'Ninjas are clever and they like new ideas.'

'But fighting is not a computer game!' said Splinter. 'Are you listening, Donatello?'

'Thanks, Sensei!' said Donnie and he walked out of the room with the Kraangdroid.

'A computer game ...' he said quietly. 'That's a great idea!'

CHAPTER TWO

Donnie's robot

CRASH! BANG!

'What's that noise?' asked Mikey.

A robot walked into the room. It was small with blue eyes.

'Meet my new robot,' Donnie said.

'I love it!' said Mikey.

'It's very small,' said Raph.

'I've got a remote control,' said Donnie. 'Now I can stay at home and fight!'

'Ninjas don't stay at home!' said Leo.
