Luka Plays Baseball

For Review Only

By Julie Ellis Illustrated by Melissa Webb

Luka and his friend Sam could see the big children playing baseball.

"They are good at hitting the ball," said Sam.

"I want to hit a ball like that," said Luka, "but I don't have a bat."

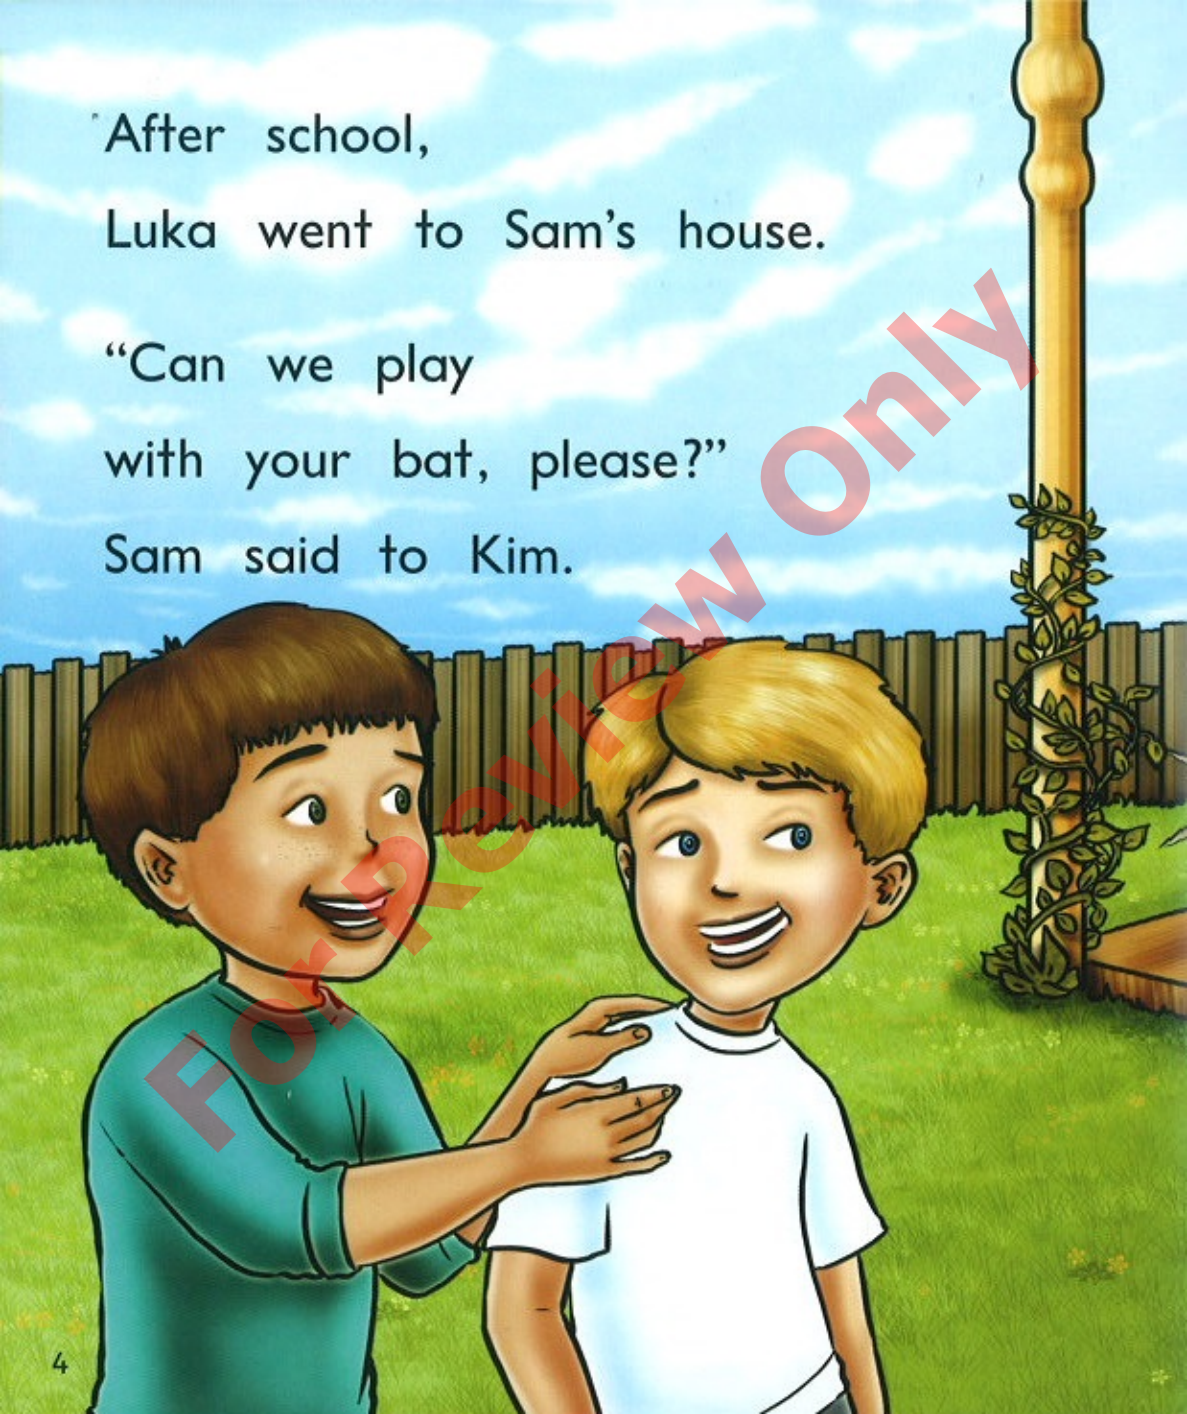

"My big sister Kim has one at home," said Sam.

After school,
Luka went to Sam's house.

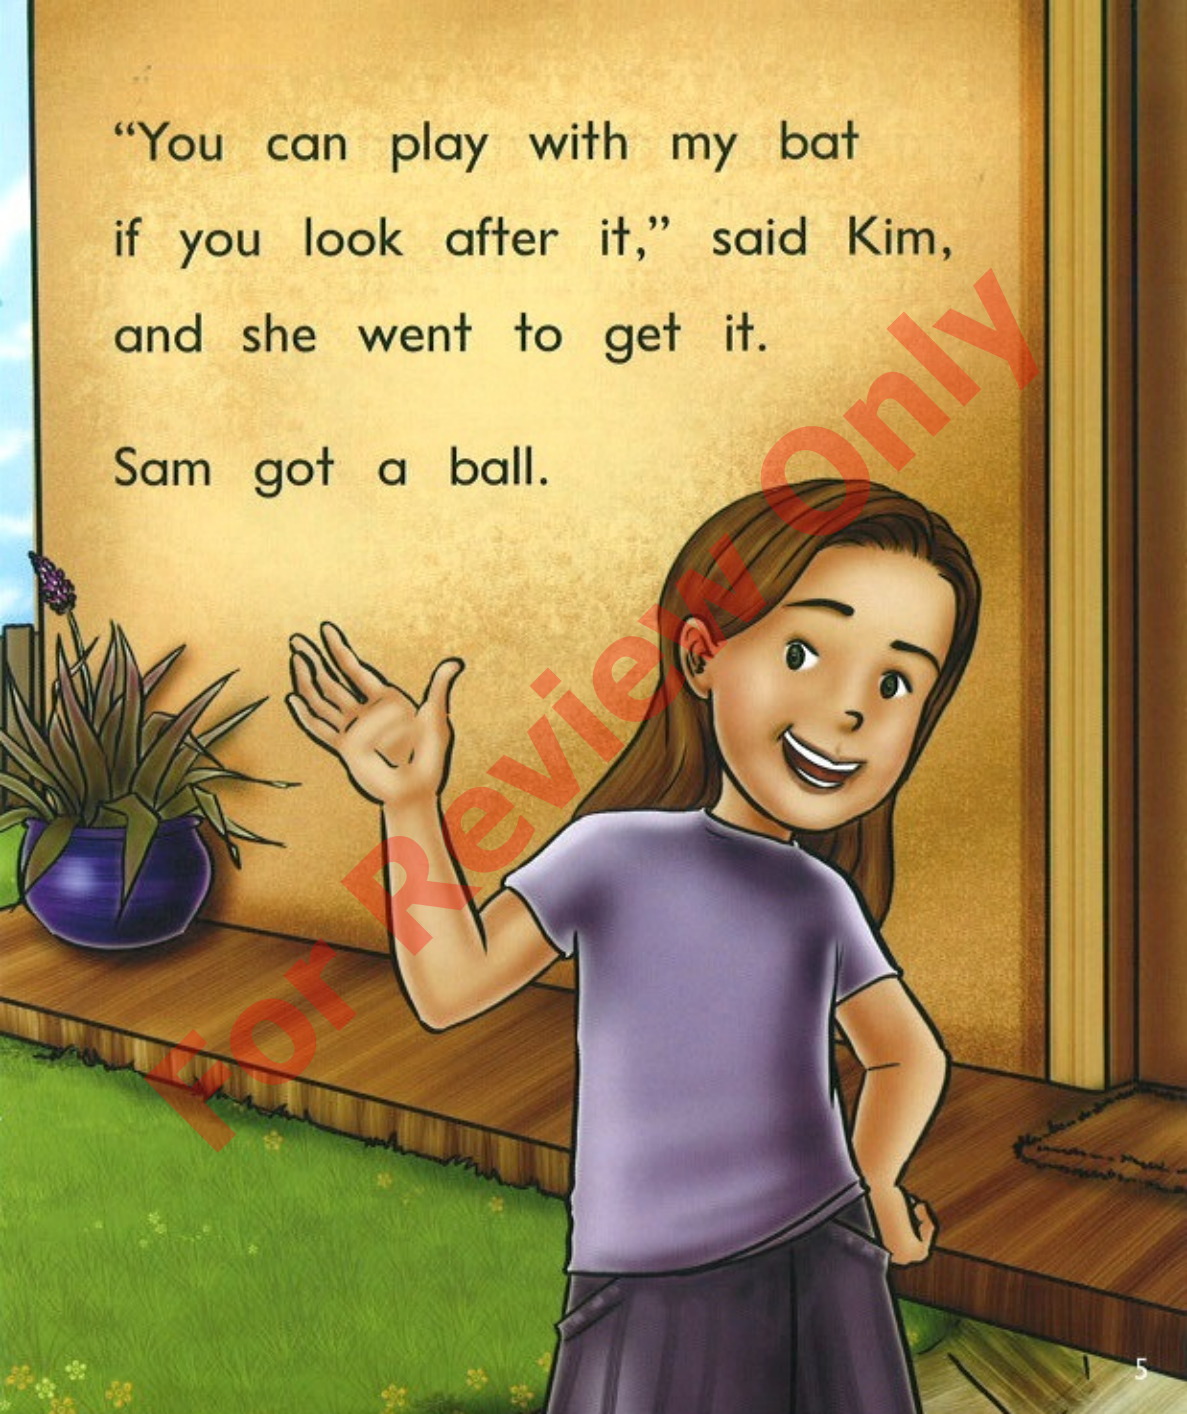

"Can we play
with your bat, please?"
Sam said to Kim.

"You can play with my bat if you look after it," said Kim, and she went to get it.

Sam got a ball.

Kim gave her bat to Luka.

"Here comes the ball," said Sam.

Luka swung the bat.
He missed the ball.

"Try again," said Sam.
