Scooter's Busy Monday

By Jenny Giles

Illustrated by Mark Sehler

Title	Scooter's Busy Monday
Levels	12–14/15
Running words	314

For Review Only

You can also read Flying Colours books online.

Go to www.flying-colours.com.au

Scooter's Busy Monday

For Review Only

By Jenny Giles

Illustrated by Mark Sehler

Scooter was Jimmy and Kate's ferryboat.

On Saturdays and Sundays,
people came to have a ride on Scooter.

Some people liked to sit upstairs,
and some people liked to sit inside.

For Review Only

For Review Only

Children liked to have a ride on Scooter. Kate always let one of them ring the bell when it was time to go.

Ding! Ding! Ding!
went the bell,
and all the people sat down.

Then away went Scooter, over the water.

For Review Only

For Review Only

But on Mondays,
no one came to ride on Scooter.

No one looked at the sign
in the car park.

People were in a hurry.
They all went over the bridge to the city
in their cars.

For Review Only

For Review Only