Stranger Danger

By Dawn McMillan Illustrated by Annie White

Flying Colours

Title	Stranger Danger
Levels	12–14/15
Running words	365

For Review Only

You can also read Flying Colours books online.

Go to www.flying-colours.com.au

Stranger Danger

For Review Only

By Dawn McMillan

Illustrated by Annie White

Nat and Mum sat under a tree at the park.

"Can I go and play on the swings, please, Mum?" asked Nat.

For Review Only

"Yes," said Mum.

"I can see you from here,

but be careful.

Don't talk to strangers!"

For Review Only

Nat ran over to the swings.
He got on the red one.

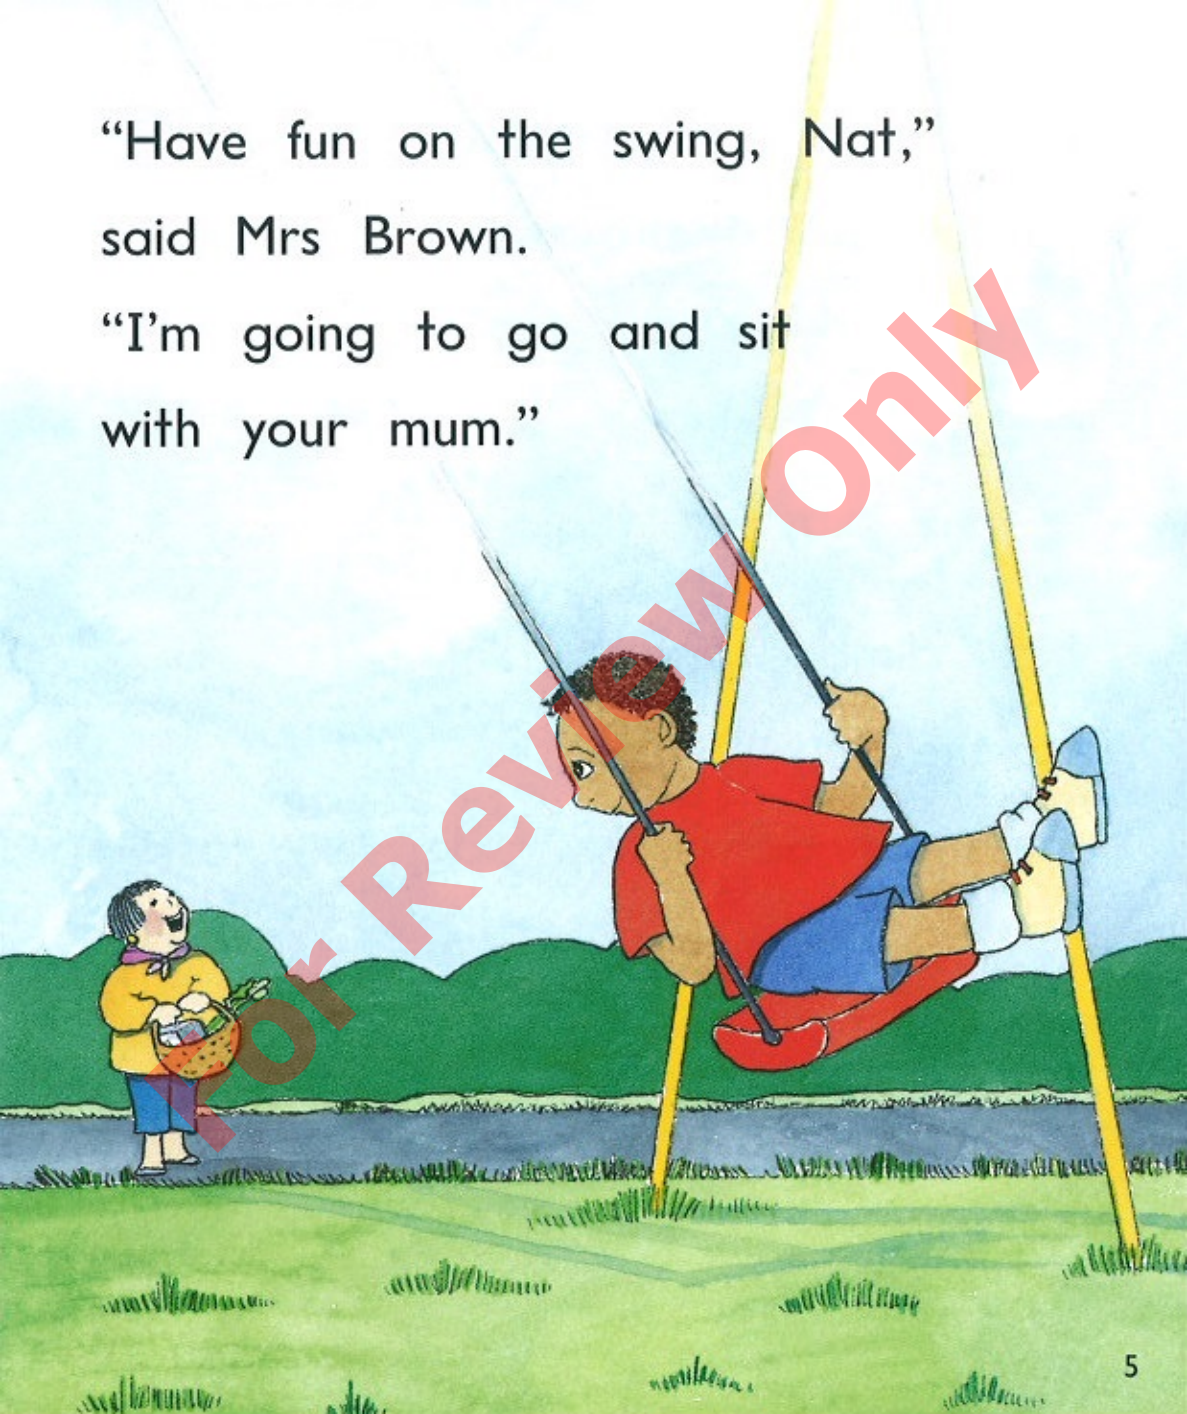

"Hello, Nat," someone said.

Nat looked down
and saw Mrs Brown.
She lived in the house
next door to Nat.

"Oh, hello, Mrs Brown!"
called Nat. "I can talk to you.
You are not a stranger!"

For Review Only

"Have fun on the swing, Nat," said Mrs Brown.
"I'm going to go and sit with your mum."

For Review Only

Nat got off the swing.
He looked at the slide.
"The slide will be fun,"
he said to himself.
"I will play on that now."

Nat climbed the ladder
to the top of the slide.
He went down the slide very fast!

Nat turned to run back to the ladder again.

For Review Only

He saw a man by the slide.

The man was watching him.

For Review Only