Becky's Special Folder

By Jay Sanders

Illustrated by Suzie Byrne

Flying Colours

Title	Becky's Special Folder
Levels	15–16/17
Running words	397

For Review Only

You can also read Flying Colours books online.

Go to www.flying-colours.com.au

Becky's Special Folder

By Jay Sanders
Illustrated by Suzie Byrne

For Review Only

Chapter 1 All Alone 2

Chapter 2 Mum Helps Out 6

Chapter 3 A New Red Folder 10

Chapter 1

All Alone

It was lunchtime.
Becky sat all alone in the school playground.

She got up and walked slowly over to some girls playing under a tree.
"Can I play with you?" she asked.

"No," said Amy. "There are no seats left."

Becky walked away.
She was sad and very lonely.

For Review Only

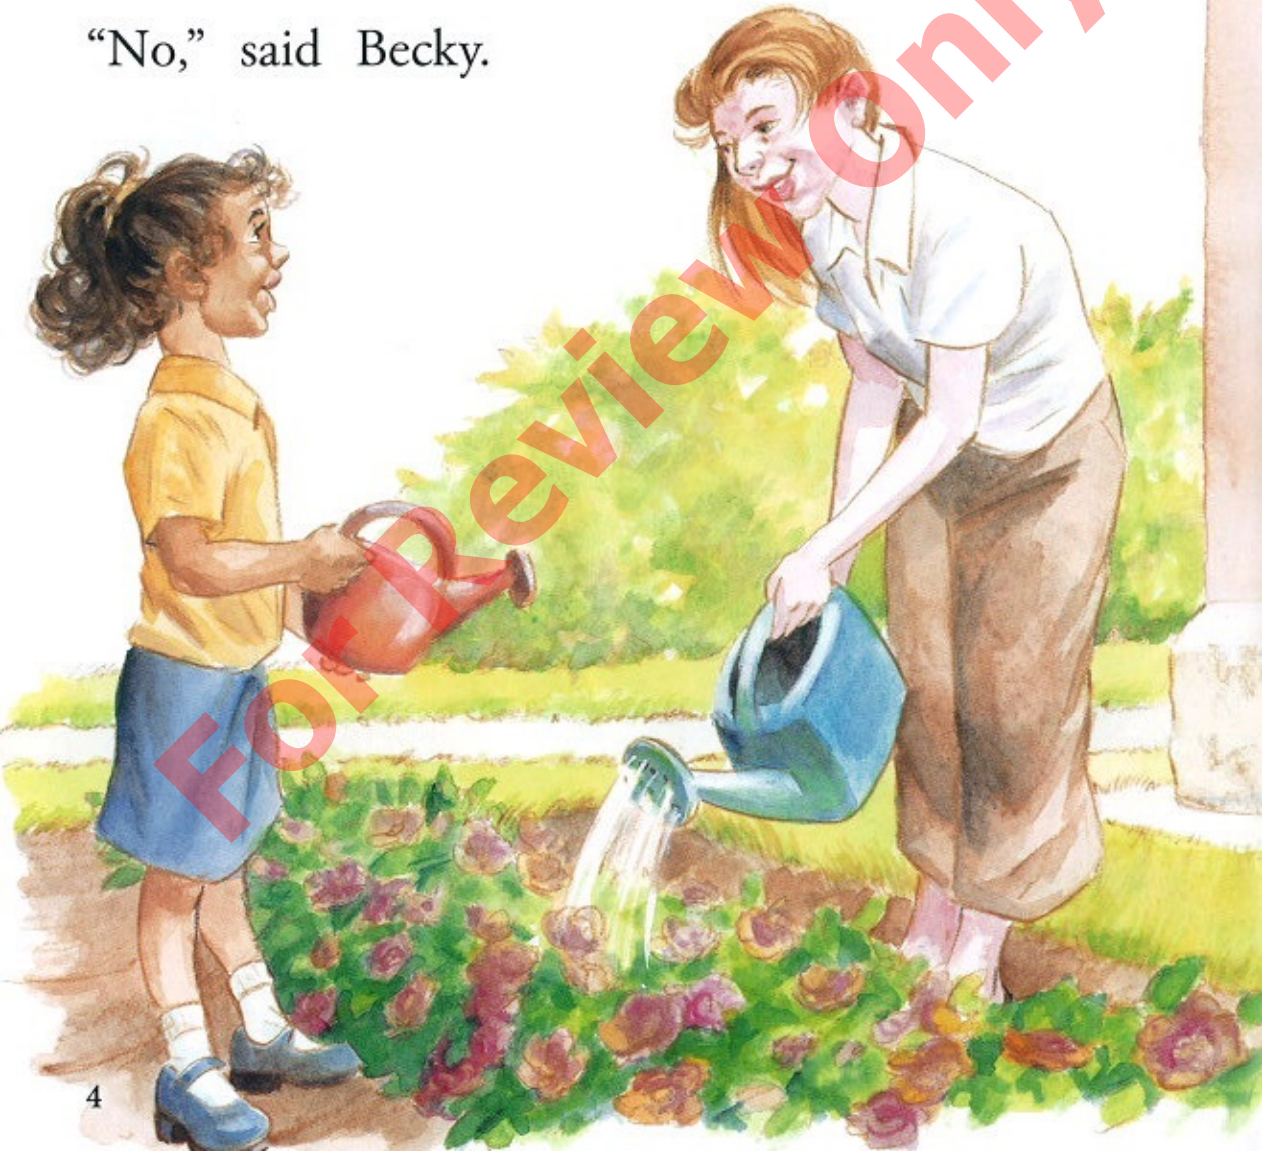

For Review Only

Becky's teacher, Mrs Wills, came over.

"Becky," she said,
"do you have a friend to play with today?"

"No," said Becky.

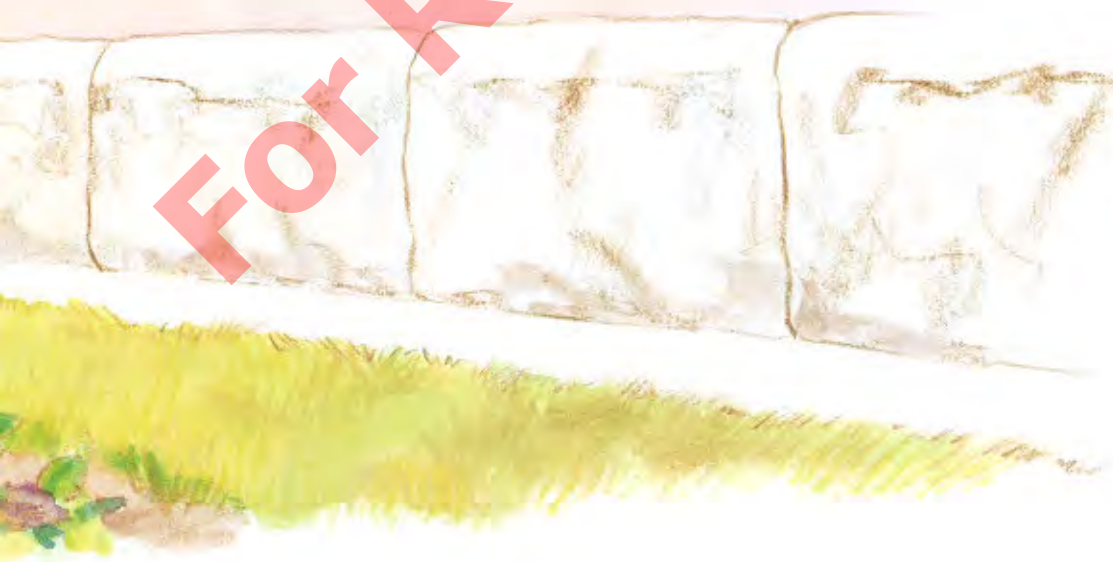

For Review Only

"Our school garden looks very dry,"
said Mrs Wills.
"Would you like to water the flowers
for me?"

"Yes, please," said Becky.
"I help Mum in our garden at home."

Becky helped Mrs Wills until the bell went.

For Review Only

Chapter 2

Mum Helps Out

After school, Mum came to get Becky.
"How was school today?" she asked.

"Good," said Becky.

But Mum looked at Becky.
She could see tears in her eyes.

"Mum," said Becky,
"last year I had some friends,
but this year I don't have any friends at all."

For Review Only

For Review Only